Blue Ridge FFA Dinner Thursday

Awards Scheduled, Sweetheart Named

Blue Ridge Chapter, Future Farmers of America, will stage their annual banquet Thursday evening at 7:30, the cafeteria staff of Lehman-Jackson-Ross Township High School preparing and serving.

High spot of the evening will be presentation of Tess Rodriguez as FFA Sweetheart by Ken Sutton. Tess rates not only the customary satin jacket emblazoned with the FFA emblem, but a mother of pearl necklace.

William McCarroll, president, will serve as toastmaster, receiving reports. Awards will go to members winning distinction in area, County and State farm projects last summer.

Walter Micklo and Martin Zbich, log-sawing champions for four years, will appear to defend their title.

George Major is chairman of the dinner.

Winner of the annual seed contest will be recognized. Richard Mekeel sold over $35 worth of vegetable seeds, contending with

Cynthia Hastings

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hastings, Jr., Goss Manor, have announced the birth of a baby girl at St. Joseph's Hospital, Lancaster, March 13. Mrs. Hastings is the former Lois Aierstock of Lancaster. Mr. Hastings is son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hastings, Sr., of Forty Fort.

25 percent of the membership participating in the sale. Sales for the FFA totalled $150, double the amount realized in 1953.

Larry Drabick, instructor in Vocational Agriculture, is faculty adviser.

Rummage Sale

Augusta Court, No. 118, Order of Amaranth, will hold a rummage sale in the Lare Building March 25, 26, 27. Any one having rummage contact the chairman, Mrs. William E. Brown or co-chairman, Mrs. F. B. Bucher.

STATE POLICE SAY

Many a man who would hesitate to risk big money on cards will gamble his life—to save five minutes. Next time you're tempted to hurry in traffic, bet it safe. The stakes are steep, if you lose.
