

Couples Club To Hear Child Psychologist

Prince of Peace Couples Club will have as speaker at the next meeting, April 27, in the church hall, Mrs. Martha Fry, child psychologist from Scranton. Mrs. Fry will talk on "Feelings of Hostility," and her remarks will be illustrated by a film. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hall will have charge of refreshments.

The recent brunch was reported as a success at a meeting held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. William McClelland. Present were these couples: Jack Stahley, Robert Buntz, William Wright, Ralph Smith, E. Ratcliff, Dick Colborn, Arthur Beverage, Roswell Patterson, Calvin Hall and Mrs. Woody Allen.

Miss Emma Peifer, 80, Buried In Forty Fort

Miss Emma Falara Peifer was buried Monday afternoon in Forty Fort Cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Thomas C. Davis. Miss Peifer would have been eighty-one on April 14. Ill for only a week, she passed away Friday night at the home of her cousin, Ralph Kauffman, with whom she made her home on Demunds Road for the past ten years.

Born in Hazleton, daughter of the late Henry and Emma Kauffman Peifer, she graduated from Wilkes-Barre high school and taught at Conyngham High School, South Wilkes-Barre, for forty-three years. Retiring eighteen years ago, she lived with her nephew John Hensyl in Bloomsburg for eight years. When he was transferred to Lancaster, she moved to Demunds Rd. Local survivors are third cousins, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Dallas, and Mrs. Sherman Meade, Shavertown.

As late as last summer Miss Peifer took great pride in her flower garden, doing the work herself and enjoying the out of doors.
