Town Meeting Called April 30

Hendricks, Dolbear, Farber On Program

A spirited discussion of community problems-not the least of which is a resurvey of the entire tax structure-held the attention of the Town Meeting Committee of Back Mountain Memorial Library Association Sunday afternoon at its meeting in the Library Annex.

Called primarily to discuss plans and make arrangements for its next Town Meeting at Dallas Township High School Auditorium on Friday evening, April 30, it attracted the largest gathering to date of representative citizens who are interested in seeing community problems discussed openly at future Town Meeings.

Charles Rinehimer presided, and heard reports from members who appraised the first meeting or schools and made suggestions for the forthcoming meeting.

Every effort, Mr. Rinehimer said, will be made to encourage members of all school boards, parent teacher associations and the general public to attend the April 30th meeting and take part in the written and oral questioning after the talks by Howard Hendricks of Shillington Public Schools and Frank Dolbear of Tunkhannock Joint Schools. Dr. Hobart A. Farber, superintendent of Lehigh County Schools, will be moderator.

General theme of the meeting "What Do Other Communities Have That We Haven't Got?' Both Mr. Dolbear and Mr. Hendricks will discuss the educational goals of their particular school systems with emphasis upon curriculum ton Methodist Church. advantages their students will have in a larger and more modern sys-

Mr. Rinehimer stated that a third Town Meeting in May will deal with Taxation in the Back Mountain Area. There was considerable discussion among the group on this subject and so much lively interest shown by everybody, that the group for the May 13 meeting. concluded that taxation is the next logical subject for public airing.

Among those who took part in the round table discussion and who helped select the subject for both the April 30th and May meetings

Robert Laux, Albert Pesavento, Mrs. Alton B. Whittaker, Mrs. W. McQuilkin, Roswell Patterson, Clarence Laidler, Arthur Smith, Franklin Gager, Lewis LeGrand, Norti Berti, David Schooley, Mrs. Charles Eberle, Odus Moore, James Howard Risley and Charles Rinehimer.

Unable to attend Sunday's group discussions were: Mrs. Arthur Culver, Rev. Robert Yost, Harry B. Schooley, Edward Haskell and Ornan Lamb although Mr. Lamb sent a report that he had interviewed Mr. Dolbear in Tunkhannock and had secured him as one of the speakers for the next Town Meet-

The Town Meeting Committee is open to any one in the community. will be held Sunday afternoon, April 25, at 2 at the Library Annex preparatory to the Town Meeting on
