

Cancer Death Rate Higher In Cities

So far as cancer is concerned, is it safer to live in the country than the city?
The American Cancer Society is developing preliminary plans for a study to answer this question. Statistically, it has determined that the disparity between cancer deaths in rural and urban living can be as much as 43 per cent.
The bigger the city, moreover, analysis of 1950 death rates showed the higher the cancer mortality rate.

Says Larger District Gives Better Chance

Dallas Township PTA meeting, Charles Rinehimer presiding, was held Monday night at the High School. Robert Dolbear was named chairman of the nominating committee, assisted by Mrs. Charles Watkins, Mrs. Clarence Laidler, Mrs. Lawrence Updyke, Mrs. James Mitchell, Charles Roberts, and Edward Dorrance.
Mrs. Robert Milne, chairman of school improvement committee, will be assisted by Mesdames Sheldon Mosier, Arthur Harris, Ray Elston, George Dymond, Robert Snyder, Al Montross and Arthur Newnam.
Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Laidler will attend the May 1 district PTA meeting in Forty Fort as delegates. Executive Board meeting is scheduled for May 12.

Light Wasted—Too small a light bulb is wasteful rather than economical. For studying, reading, or sewing, a 150-watt bulb is recommended. The smallest that should be used for this close work is a 100-watt bulb, Sanna Black, Penn State extension home management specialist, reports.

Select Safe Toys—Baby's first toys will spend a great deal of time in his mouth. That's why the toys should be large enough so they can't be swallowed, says Marguerite L. Duvall, Penn State extension child development specialist. If the toy is washable, it will be easier to keep clean.

Mid-morning Snack—The pre-school child may become hungry and tired between breakfast and lunch. Marjorie J. Wormeck, Penn State extension nutritionist, suggests a mid-morning snack of fruit or milk and a cracker served at the table.

Use Fine Oil—When oiling a sewing machine use a high-grade machine oil especially prepared for sewing machines. Buy oil from sewing machine manufacturers who guarantee their oil not to gum.

Paint Buildings—The life of a farm building can be increased by 10 to 16 years simply by applying paint when needed. Inspect all buildings and figure the amount of paint needed, but don't wait too long. Spring and fall are good seasons for outside painting.
