Many Golfers Opening Day

The picturesque Irem Country Club golf course was the scene for over 200 golfers and would-be golfers on Opening Day, known as Weckesser Day, which was held Saturday.
 Visitors from many neighboring clubs in Wyoming Valley and from as far away as Reading competed for many prizes.
 A dinner, under sponsorship of the Golf Committee, climaxed the days events.
 The coveted Weckesser Cup, traditionally presented to the Irem member with the lowest gross score, went to Jack DeWitt Jr., who has been one of Irem's topflight golfers for some time. He came in with a neat 76 for the 18. Close on his heels, scoring second and third respectively, were J. Henry Pool Sr., with a 78 and Warren Unger with an 80.

 Among the visitors who turned in outstanding performances was Ed Gonsky, from Wyoming Valley Country Club, who shot a terrific two-under-par 70. He was co-winner with Art Barni last year in Irem's Best-Ball-of-Partners Tournament.
 Coming in with cards of 71 and 78 were Bob Badorf of Reading and J. Yokum of Reading.
 In the low net division (subtract handicaps), for the members, the winners were Norman Wakeling and Earl Tremayne. Clinton Ide won a prize for the highest medal score of the day.
 In the low net division, for the visitors, the winner was Frank Gavel. Ted Ruff, Richard Thomas, W. Zalesky, S. Burns and B. Popoft all tied with 73.
 There comes the time when a nation, as well as its people, must make the choice between tightening its belt or run the risk of losing its pants.

Youth Canteen Draws Crowd

Nearly a hundred teen-agers between ages of 14 and 18 turned out for the first evening of the newly established Youth Canteen at Dallas Borough Grade School Saturday night, enjoying the smooth gymnasium floor for dancing, playing tennis and table-games, and enjoying ookes and pretzels at the snack bar.
 The Dallas canteen, established by Back Mountain Town and Country YMCA as a trial balloon, to operate for four weeks to assay demand for such a center, promises to be a great success, according to Jack Williams, director. Registration fee and a nightly tax, both very small, cover all expenses, giving an evening of fun for much less outlay than movies or a trip to the soda fountain.
 Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eberle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bogert, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. James Jones.
