Lewis Resigns As Solicitor

Council Discusses Parking Meters

Atty. Burt B. Lewis, borough solicitor for the past fourteen years, resigned, effective July 1, at the meeting of Dallas Borough Council on Tuesday night.

Atty. Lewis, who was not present, stated in his letter of resignation that matters of health had prompted his decision.

His resignation was accepted with regret. No successor has been appointed.

Secretary James Besecker read a communication from the State Department of Health stating that the State has accepted the responsibility of looking after health matters in the Borough that were formerly under the jurisdiction of the Borough Health officer. In the future all matters pertaining to health and sanitation will be referred to the District Medical Director at Kirby Health Center.

Fines amounting to $65 received from speeding convictions obtained by Chief Russell Honeywell were turned in by Burgess H. A. Smith.

Roy Parry, Luzerne roofing contractor, was authorized to make repairs to the Borough Building roof at a cost of $155.

Building permits were issued to William Wright, Ridge Street, $1,000; Robert A. Hughes, garage, $700; Lambert Swingle, dwelling, Franklin street, $9,000; Peter De-laney, warehouse, Memorial Highway, $3,000.

Arthur Ross, heating engineer, submitted plans for the improvement of the heating installation in the Borough Building.

George Turner and Benjamin Parent representatives of Mark Time Parking meters, demonstrated their product and explained how the installation of meters in central Dallas would work to the benefit of merchants and shoppers. Council took no action.

Council authorized borrowing $1,000 to cover current expenses until the receipt of 1954 taxes.

Mrs. Richardson Heads Mothers

Talk By Becker Football Club Hears

Mrs. L. L. Richardson was unanimously elected president of Westmoreland Football Mothers Club at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robert Shotwell, retiring president, Thursday evening. Unanimously elected also were Mrs. James Thomas, vice president; Mrs. Fred Anderson, secretary, and Mrs. Edward Carey, treasurer.

A report on the Football Banquet was given by Mrs. Richardson.

Coach Robert Becker spoke on highlights of football, stressing the importance of home attitude. Coach Becker pointed out safeguards, and the astounding scarcity of accidents on the field compared to accidents in daily life. He said that if orders were followed and instructions obeyed, there was little likelihood of injury. Too many boys, he went on, grow to adolescence with no conception of sticking to a job or a sport. It is to combat the quitter that football plays its biggest role in character formation. Great strides in development of emotional and mental stability as well as physical strength and co-ordination can be expected.

Football practice will start during mid-August, PIAA rules requiring three weeks preliminary practice before the first game. Industrial Art Department will make letters for the scoreboard. Mabel Jenkins will be asked to instruct cheer leaders.

The club voted to provide markers for one side of the field and four goal flags, to be selected by Coach Becker.

Mrs. Robert Shotwell was appointed chairman of the fall card party, Mrs. Fred Anderson general chairman of publicity.
