A SAFETY SUGGESTION

Have you ever stepped on your own untied shoelace and taken a tumble? That's what can happen to your child when shoelaces are not tied securely. Youngsters run and play hard and they don't think about shoelaces being untied. Get in the habit of using a double knot to prevent an untied shoelace that can cause a fall. Teach children as soon as they are able to learn to tie shoelace knots correctly.

Carol Luella Harding Becomes Bride Of William C. Reese

Saturday, June 19, at 2 p. m., Carol Luella Harding, daughter of Wilson Harding and the late Elro Harding of Noxen, became the bride of William C. Reese, son of Dr. James A. Reese of Waynesburg and the late Mrs. Reese. Rev. Ruth Underwood, assisted by Rev. Henry C. Kraft, performed the double ring ceremony in St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Noxen, before an altar banked with white roses and peonies.

Elnora Phoenix presided at the organ and Mrs. Warren Montross sang the traditional songs.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white bridal satin gown made with nylon lace bodice, full tulle skirt, long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist and peter pan collar. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses.

Maid of honor was Nancy Guntton, cousin of the bride, of Noxen and bridesmaids, Jean Smith and Nancy Harding, cousins, of Tunkhannock R. D. 5 and Lucille Johnson, cousin of the bridegroom, of Waynesburg. They wore nylon over taffeta gowns styled with tight bodices, full tulle skirts, boat neckline, and short sleeves in blue, pink, yellow and Nile green respectively.

The couple will reside at Waynesburg.

They wore matching bonnets and mitts and carried Colonial bouquets of pink and yellow roses.

Little Karen Pollock, niece of the bridegroom, of Rossiter, Pa., and Jo Ann French, niece of the bride of Carverton, were flower girls. They wore lilac frocks and carried satin and tulle baskets filled with pink roses.

Best man was John Reese, brother of the bridegroom of Waynesburg, and ushers, Richard and Harold Harding, brothers of the bride of Noxen and Kinzo Yamoto of Newtown, Pa.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held on the lawn of the bride's home and the couple left for Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Reese is a graduate of Noxen Township High School and Moses Taylor Hospital School for Nurses. She has been keeping house for her father since the death of her mother. Mr. Reese was graduated from Waynesburg High School, Waynesburg College, and Penn State College. He served for twenty months with the U. S. Navy during World War 2. He is engaged in vocational agriculture work.

The couple will reside at Waynesburg.

MEMBERS OF ART CLASS ENJOY CLASSES IN SUMMER SETTING

By MRS. IVA MITCHELL
The Art Group of the Dallas Woman's Club enjoyed its first open-air class on Wednesday under the supervision of Nicolo Cortiglia, well-known Wyoming Valley artist.

The grounds that encircle Mrs. Walter Elston's attractive country home with lovely old shade trees, flower beds and rock-garden offered the perfect setting for the class.

Scattered about in the cool shade in this garden-spot, students sat before their easels and captured in pastels and oils some of the summer beauty.

It is, indeed, unfortunate that all members of the class cannot attend the open-air sessions, but several in this Art Group are professional women who cannot take advantage of the daytime classes and who must be content with the evening schedule.

In the Art Division of the Dallas Woman's Club are a few finished artists, several who are well advanced in pastels and oils and, of course, many are beginners.

In the present group under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harry Coeringer, Jr., are: Mrs. Robert Bachman, Mrs. Bart Collett, Mrs. Walter Elston, Mrs. D. Willard Evans, Mrs. George Flack, Mrs. J. Robert Graves, secretary; Mrs. Wesley Himmler, Mrs. James Hunt, Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. Prentice Lacy, Mrs. Charles Mannear, Mrs. Byron Mitchell, Mrs. Ralph Postorive, Mrs. Edward Ratcliffe, treasurer; Mrs. William Reniska, Mrs. V. A. Shindell, Mrs. Robert Weaver and Mrs. Clarence Woodruff.

It is expected that July and August will raise havoc with the usual schedule, but certain members of the Art Class have expressed a desire for the continued supervision of Art Director Nicolo Cortiglia once or twice each month. Fortunately, Mr. Cortiglia has moved into his summer residence at Beaumont and expects to continue his work with the art class over in that vicinity.

STATE POLICE SAY

It's so easy to get hurt and get into difficulty driving a car, unless the driver and occupants keep alert and practice safety teachings.

Minerva was the goddess of Wisdom.
