

Charles Smith Dies Suddenly

Was Proprietor Of Standard Top Company

Charles R. Smith, 50, Overbrook Avenue, owner of Standard Top Company, Pierce Street, Kingston, died suddenly Thursday morning at 4 at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital where he had been admitted two hours earlier.

Mr. Smith was stricken with a heart attack during the early morning hours and rushed to the hospital in Dallas Community Ambulance which arrived within ten minutes after it was called, in charge of Team No. 4, composed of Charles Flack, captain, James Gansel, Leslie Warhola, Russell Honeywell and Donald Evans. Oxygen was administered immediately.

A resident of the Back Mountain area for the past three years, Mr. Smith had lived a semi-retired life due to a previous heart attack. He was widely known throughout Wyoming Valley and made many friends here. He had lived in Kingston most of his life.

He was a member of Shavertown Methodist Church, all Masonic bodies and I. O. O. F. and was an ardent sportsman.

Beside his wife, the former Mary Pugh, of Edwardsville, he leaves two sons, Charles H., Trucksville Gardens; John A., who has just returned from Army service, at home; two grandchildren, Charlene and Charles L. Smith, Trucksville; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Butler Street, Kingston; a sister, Mrs. Althea Mott, Forty Fort and a brother, Huntington Smith, Washington, D. C.

Burial will be Monday at a time and place to be announced later.

Carrie Randall Laid To Rest

Died Saturday After A Long Illness

Mrs. Carrie G. Randall was laid to rest in Ceasetown Cemetery Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Harold Horne conducting services from the Bronson funeral home. Pallbearers were Wilmer Kemmerer, Leonard and Leo Sweeney, Dewey and Kenneth Rood, and George Potsko. William Compton read Scriptures at a service held Monday night.

Mrs. Randall, 76, died Saturday night at her home in East Dallas. She had been in poor health for the past three years, a patient at times in Temple University and General Hospitals.

She was a charter member of the Primitive Methodist Church, Fernbrook, and of its Ladies Aid. She belonged to the Ladies Bible Class and was a former Sunday School teacher.

She was the daughter of the late Peter and Elmira Cease Santee, and lived for practically her entire life in the Back Mountain.

Survivors include her husband Joseph; children: Mrs. Hazel Keiper, Wapwallopen; Mrs. Lavera Gray, New Jersey; Mrs. Ella Rood, Wyalusing; Mrs. Kathleen Fitzgerald and Henry, East Dallas; 21 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren; a brother, Arthur Santee, of Berwick.

Funeral Services For Aletha Jones Byrne

Mrs. Aletha Jones Byrne, principal of Noxen elementary school was buried in Orcutt Cemetery Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted from the Nulton Funeral Home by Rev. Ruth L. Underwood, assisted by Rev. Ira Button. Floral offerings were a tribute to the esteem of the community. Hundreds paid their respects during the hours when she lay in state.

Pallbearers were members of the Noxen School Board, and supervising principal: Robert Belles, Paul Palmer, Leslie Kocher, Willard Bender, Loren Case, Franklin Patton.

Lundy's Repainted

Main Street, Dallas, is taking on a freshened appearance with the painting of the Lundy Building.

Sheep Raisers Meet At Tunkhannock For Annual Field Day And Lamb Sale

Annual N. E. Pennsylvania Sheepmen's Field Day and sale held at Tunkhannock August 5, was attended by over 200 interested sheep folks who enjoyed an educational and entertaining day.

Thomas King, Animal Husbandry Specialist, Pennsylvania State University, judged several entries, giving instructive reasons for his placement.

One of the most interesting features was placing of pens of market lambs before they were sold. Mr. King explained market demands, and lambs were marked to indicate their classification.

Sixty head of lambs were sold. Merton Bunell of Springville and Tunkhannock, did a fine job of conducting the sale. A number of

Upped To First Class

JOHN A. SOUTHWELL, JR.

John A. Southwell, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. John Southwell, Chase Road, has been upped to Private first class. He is stationed with the Quartermaster Corps in France. With a good bit of accrued leave coming to him from his year and a half in service, John expects to spend part of it visiting relatives in London and other parts of England.

John graduated from Lehman-Jackson High School in 1951, and was employed by Phillips Sea Food at the time of his enlistment. He was thrilled to see his chum Jerry Scott's picture in the paper a few weeks ago, and writes his mother that the Huntsville Recreation Center is sure to be popular with Jerry running it.

Mitchell Parachutes In Japanese Tests

Beppu, Japan—A Dallas soldier, a member of the 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team's 3d Battalion, took part in Operation Testa Blue, final phase of a training maneuver in Japan which ended July 31.

Early in the exercise, Opl. Richard E. Mitchell, 21, parachuted in and helped set up a line of defense along the Ura River near a port vacated by "aggressor" infantry troops.

Corporal Mitchell, son of Mrs. Georgia Mitchell, RFD, is an automatic rifle gunner in Company L. His decorations include the Combat Infantryman Badge, the Parachutist Badge and the Korean Service Medal.

The corporal entered the Army in September 1952, and joined the team the following July.

Leinthall Players At Lake Saturday

The Leinthall Players will appear Saturday, at 8:30 at Lake-Noxen High School, under the sponsorship of The Women's Auxiliary of Daniel C. Roberts Fire Company.

The program will include three one-act plays: "A Long Stay Out Short," a dramatic play with a southern setting by Tennessee Williams, author of "A Streetcar Named Desire," "A Pair of Lunatics" and "Fumed Oak," by Noel Coward.

Leinthall Players is a mobile stock company directed by Franklyn Leinthall. They rehearse in New York City during the week and play engagements outside of the city on week ends. Mr. Leinthall has lived in Scranton and Harveys Lake. He is a teacher at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and at the Metropolitan Opera House.

Noxen Youth Sues For $20,000 Damage

In a suit filed this week at Luzerne County Court House, William J. Shalata, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shalata, Noxen, seeks $20,000 damages for injuries received in an automobile accident on August 5, 1952, when the automobile in which he was a passenger was struck by a car owned by Clarence W. Schelicher of 179 Bankway Street, Lehighton.

The accident occurred on Route 29 between Lake Silkworth and West Nanticoke. Shalata alleges he suffered fracture of the jaw, loss of several teeth and injuries to the face, head and knees.

Operator of the other car, he alleges, did not have an operator's license.

Lehman Flower Show Will Have Unique Theme For Exhibitors

Back Mountain residents are urged to keep in mind the Lehman Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show on Saturday, August 21, in the High School Auditorium. The Lehman show offers opportunities for young and old to display their talents in the horticultural line, and to test their talents in originality and arrangement.

No reservations are necessary in the Specimen Blooms division or in the Fruits and Vegetable division; however, some sections of the Artistic Arrangement division, where space is limited, require reservations. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Albert Ide, general chairman, Mrs. Myron Baker or Mrs. Bryce Major, in charge of teen-age niches.

With the general theme "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Picture Frame Arrangements will take their cue from quotations from the play: 1. "By the dead and drowsy fire: Every elf and fairy sprite hop as light as birds from brier." 2. I never heard so musical a discord, such sweet thunder." 3 "Trip away: Make no stay: Meet me all by break of day." Two frame arrangements will represent each quotation.

Six new niches, 20" x 24" x 18" will exhibit monochromatic arrangements depicting "ADream at Twilight," "A Dream in Pink," and "Golden Dreams."

Twelve smaller niches will portray song titles in a dreamy vein, two niches for each of the following songs: "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," "I've Got a Pocketful of Dreams," "Dreaming Alone in the Twilight," "Drifting and Dreaming," "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland," "My Isle of Golden Dreams," (Hawaiian).

Teenagers will try their hand at niche arrangements this year, entitled "I Dreamed I Made a Flower Arrangement in Mexico, Japan, Italy, Alaska, France, Ireland"—two arrangements representing each country.

Many other of the arrangement classes do not require reservations. Persons who have not received classification sheets, may call Mrs. Albert Ide, Lehman.

Entries will be received Friday evening, August 20, and Saturday morning, the day of the show, from 8 to 11 a. m. The show will be open to the public from 3 p. m., on through the evening. Persons wishing to buy supper will be accommodated. Baked goods will also be on sale.

Every Woman Should Act Now!

Just imagine you can get a guaranteed reconditioned Refrigerator and Washer at practically give-away prices. All famous makes.

FREE PARKING IN REAR

— Store Hours —

Open Daily to 5:30 • Open Friday Evening 'til 9

REBENNACK & COVERT

267 Wyoming Ave.

Phone BUTler 7-4514

POUND for pound—a home of your own costs less than the you wear,

the you eat or the you drive!

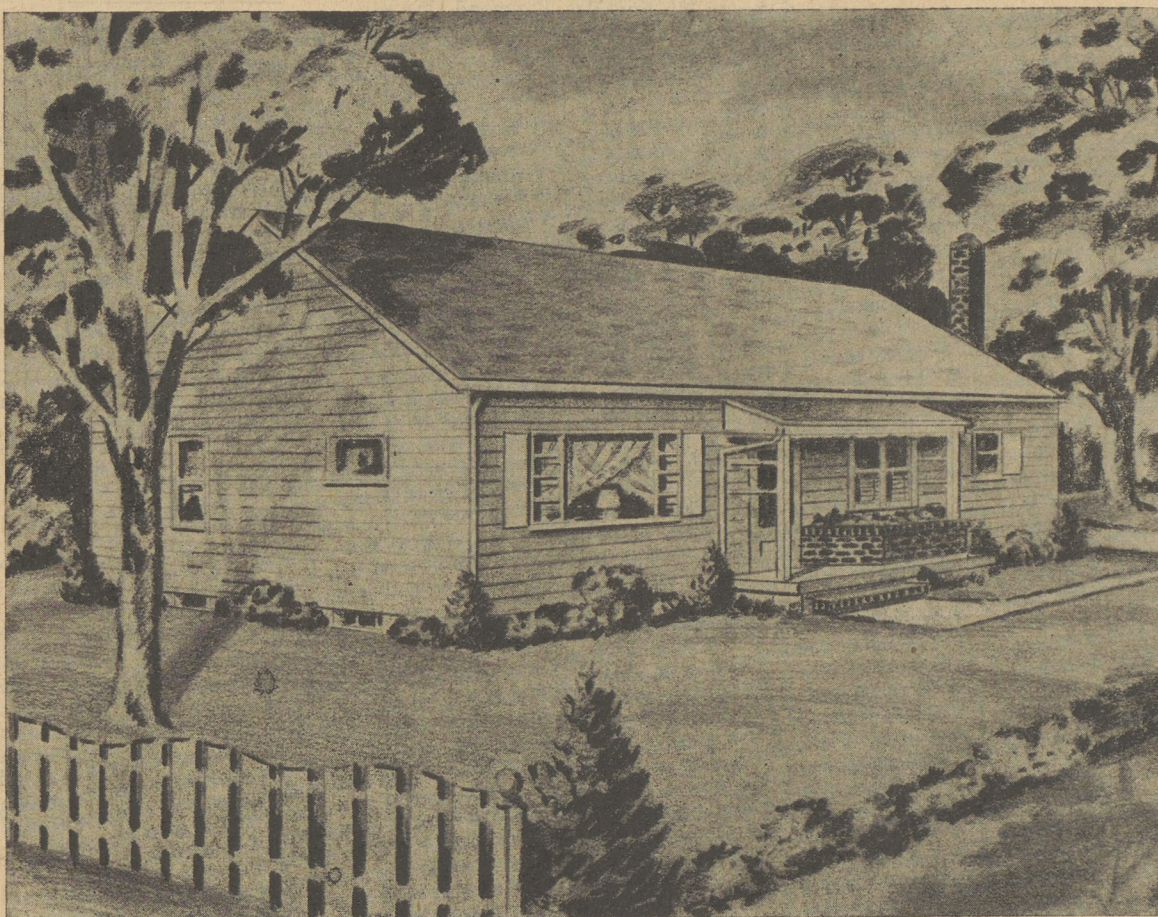

CONCRETE

BLOCK WALL

MILLWORK

PLASTER

FRAMING LUMBER

ELECTRICAL WIRING AND FIXTURES

BRICK

PLUMBING and HEATING

LANDSCAPING

INTERIOR FINISH

ROOFING

The combined weight of materials to complete the house shown here is approximately 288,000 pounds.

At 5c lb. it would cost $14,400—but THIS HOME can be yours for ... $11,300

INCLUDING THE BIG LOT AT OUR OAK HILL DEVELOPMENT

WHITESELL BROS.

BUILDING CONTRACTORS

Rt. 115 — Just Off Harveys Lake Highway

Dallas 4-3606

Box 127, Dallas