Beaumont

The 1954 Little League season has come to a close with Beaumont's team finishing in the upper brackets. As important as the team's standing is the interest shown by the coaches, parents and friends who gave their time and financial support to the building of young men.

The General Hospital patients this week include Mrs. Ruth Shupp who suffered a stroke at her home Monday night and Phillip Frey who is a surgical patient.

Carl MacDougall enjoyed his week-end in New York City where he attended the reunion of the 83rd Airborne Division of the "Flattop" Essex on which he served ten years ago.

The Robert Pilgers were in Philadelphia to see the Phillies play last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Keating have returned to West Chester after a week's relaxation with the William Arch Austins. Dr. Keating is the assistant county superintendent of schools in charge of special education in Chester County.

The McCauliffs of Cuba, N. Y., spent a few days last week with the Edward MacDougalls who are now at Bob's Lake, Canada, with the Charles Smiths.

Mrs. Albert Van Campen and children of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Van Campen's parents, the Walter Pilgers.

The July 29th issue of the "Republican and New Age" printed the following notice: "Registrars will be at the Beaumont I.O.O.F. Hall Tuesday, August 31, 1954, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for the purpose of registering those who may wish to vote in the November election.

When the list of students who achieved two years beyond their grade level was compiled at school, the name of Sharon Taylor was unintentionally omitted from the second grade list. Sorry, Sharon.

Lake Silkworth Pageant Draws Thousands Sunday

Water carnival pageantry, motor boat and sailboat racing combined to make a spectacular success of Lake Silkworth's annual Volunteer Firemen's program, with highways blocked for miles by thousands of motorists.

Flying saucer surf riding and water skiing were demonstrated by Richard Pritchard, Harveys Lake, Lake Nuangola sent moth sailboats. Floats were numerous, ranging from historical scenes to comics. First place went to Fiji Islander float. Chet Miller, Harveys Lake, placed second in first heat of motor boat races. Sherwood Wilson, Trucksville, first in open class.

Withdraw Application

Harry and Dorothy Smith, trading as Smith's Economy Store, Huntsville Road, have withdrawn their application for a beer license which was pending before the State Liquor Control Board. The Smiths had originally applied for a license to operate a restaurant in connection with their retail grocery business.
