Jay Long Is Elected C.E. Union President

Jay Long was made president of Christian Endeavor Union upon the resignation of the former president, at a recent meeting held at Reburn. Jay has been vice-president for two years.

A new secretary and treasurer were also elected. Hazel Martin was elected secretary as the former secretary, Jeanette Harvey, will enter American Bible Seminary in Brooklyn and Lois Belles was elected treasurer as the former treasurer, Lorraine Martin, will enter Philadelphia School of the Bible this month.

The Sweet Valley C.E. Union consisting of the Christian Endeavor's of the Sweet Valley Christian Church and of the Reburn, Koonsville, and Bloomingdale churches held a wiener roast at the Forest Hills Baptist Youth Camp, Sweet Valley.

After the wiener roast, the group held a campfire service. John Marvin, a student at Bob Jones University was the speaker. Rev. Patrick Loftus led the song service and Rev. Wm. Howie led the testimony meeting.

Adam Karney Buried In Warden Cemetery

Adam (Knopka) Karney, 51, who died Thursday afternoon at 1:30 under a fall of rock at the Buttonwood Colliery, was buried Monday morning at 10 in Warden Cemetery. Rev. William Heapps conducted services at the Hugh Boyle Funeral Home, with arrangements by Alfred Bronson.

Mr. Karney had made his home for seventeen years with the John Layaou family, moving with them from Fernbrook to Lehman Avenue, Dallas, a year ago. He was well liked in the neighborhood. Before employment at the Buttonwood Colliery he had been employed at the Westmoreland colliery until it closed down. He served in the army from 1926 to 1929.

He is survived by brothers and sisters: Alexander Knopka and Mrs. John Grady, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Josephine Roberts, Edwardsville; Mrs. Laura Swicker, Larksville, and Mrs. Mary Brown, Binghamton.

A nail driven into a tree trunk would be at the same height from the ground five years later.
