

Plantation Party October 29, 30

Reese Pelton To Direct Minstrel

Reese Pelton, Shavertown, will coach the Dallas Womans Club Minstrel Show, assisted by Edgar Hughes, Kingston. Grace Griffiths will accompany.

"Plantation Party" will be presented October 29 and 30 in Dallas-Franklin Township High School auditorium. Rehearsals are going well on a revised schedule, Mondays and Thursdays at 8 in the Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex.

The roster of End-Men is not yet complete. There is still a chance to get into the headlines with specialties, and plenty of space in the chorus. Between forty and forty-five are appearing for rehearsals, working up good plantation songs in close harmony.

Donna Marie Ide

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ide, Trucks-ville, are proudly announcing the arrival of a granddaughter, Donna Marie, born to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Ide, Rice Street, Trucksville, Sep-tember 10, at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Donna Marie has a big sis-ter, Debra Ann, aged three.

Two Duets Added To 7th Concert

Program Will Be Presented Oct. 22

Two duets have been added to the program of the Seventh Annual Community Concert, October 22, in Westmoreland High School audi-itorium. Indications point to this year's festival of music being the best held thus far, with almost every community of the Back Moun-tain area represented and a fine array of musical and vocal artists participating.

Richard Oliver, popular tenor, and Miss Mildred Kingston, well known soprano, both of Dallas, will sing one duet on the concert program. Miss Kingston studies voice under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Turn Reynolds, and was one of the solo-ists at last year's concert. She has been soloist at numerous church affairs, and gave her first senior voice recital last year in First Methodist Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Having studied voice for several years with Wilbur Isaacs at Wilkes College, Richard Oliver is now studying with Mrs. Ruth Turn Reynolds. He is senior soloist at Dallas Methodist Church, and has sung at numerous community af-fairs. Mr. Oliver was first tenor in the male double quartet, "The Mountaineers" at last year's con-cert.

William H. Burnaford, Shaver-town, and Ruth Turn Reynolds, Trucksville, who sang duets on pre-vious concert programs, will again appear together this year by popu-lar request. Both artists have long been admired for their musical ac-complishments. Ruth Turn Reynolds has been president of the National Federation of Mozart Clubs, thereby bringing national distinction to this talented soloist, organist, and choir director from Trucksville.

Mr. Burnaford has taken leading roles in the Little Theater produc-tions and has been soloist in St. John's Lutheran Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Both Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Burnaford are known in the musi-cal circles of Wyoming Valley and many lovers of good music attend this annual Back Mountain festival of music to hear these two accom-plished artists. Mrs. Reynolds is also known for her ability as a vocal instructor.

A meeting of the Concert Com-mittee was held on Wednesday night at which time it was empha-sized that the names of all citizens desiring to be patrons must be in the committee's hands by October 1.

Entertain Family

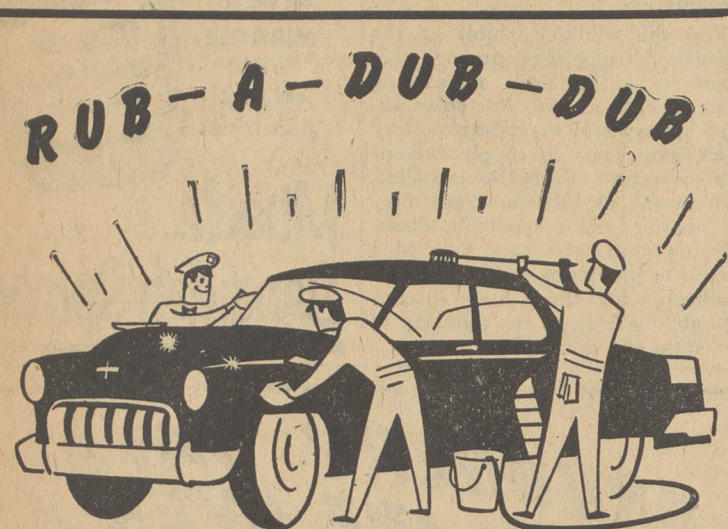

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Decker, Huntsville, entertained at Sunday dinner for brothers and sisters and their families. How Wyoming Valley's New Car Dealers Continue To Perform A Public Service To Used Car Buyers

Each year members of the Wyoming Valley Automobile Dealers Association sell thousands of new cars as well as thousands of all makes of used cars.

Primarily, our business is to sell and service new cars.

As a service to our new car buyers, we trade used cars at prices we believe they are worth to the next buyer.

Used cars fill a transportation need for many individuals who cannot afford new cars and who rely on automobiles to take them to and from their work.

To be sure the used car buyer gets his money's worth, all used cars are reconditioned, sometimes painted and ready to go out on the road — to provide the reliable, economical transportation which contributes to the economic well-being and betterment of communities.

That is why thousands of Wyoming Valley resi-dents are assured of long-driving performance while getting your new car dealer's reputation for fair dealing—a reputation built on many years of selling both new and used cars.
