The P. T. A. Christmas party held at the high school Friday was thoroughly enjoyed by one hundred fifty children and seventy-five parents, teachers and friends. After a short business meeting conducted by President Frederick Weiss, the sixth grade pupils started the evening's program with an original shadow play of the "Real Christmas Story" as told in Chapter Two of the Book of Luke. The characters were: Mary, Dora Jean Taylor; Joseph, Reed Balewski; King, John Weiss; Shepherds, Ronald Barber, Samuel Traver and William Mock; Angels, Gail Jones, Barbara Hodgdon, Louise Jocelyn, Susan Miller school glee club, who did all the Christmas carols, was enjoyed while the refreshment committee prepared a delicious assortment of Christmas refreshments.

It was decided to have the next P. T. A. meeting in February when the junior and senior social studies classes will be in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Balewski and family spent last weekend in Passaic, N. J., visiting Mr. Balewski's parents.

Mrs. Alfred Mock has returned from General Hospital where she was a surgical patient.

Mrs. Robert Brown of Wilkes-Barre spent the weekend with her sister's family, the Warren Johnsons.

Tureky and all the fixings were served to all school students with healthy appetites being completely satisfied, showing their thanks to all personnel who made the school Christmas dinner possible.

May we always keep Christmas in our hearts with its message of "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Erwin Newberry recently spent two days with his son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Severn Newberry of Dallas.

Services are now being held in the newly remodelled church.

Pvt. Eleanor Galka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Galka will be released from service with the armed forces next month following an attack of rheumatic.

Lake Noxen School has been closed while a well is being drilled and the Noxen grade school has been closed because of lack of transportation. The drying up of the reservoir on Schooley's Mountain has put some townfolks out of water.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crispell attended their son's wedding in Wisconsin over the weekend.

Charles Wilkie has received his honorable discharge from service with the armed forces.

On Christmas Morn

While American children look for their presents in their stockings—real or symbolized, the children of Norway seek them in hiding places "all through the house." In Italy they seek them in "Urns of Fate," and in France in wooden shoes pipaced by the fireside.

Samuel Colt invented the revolver in 1835.
