Congregation Elects Vestry

Prince Of Peace Has Annual Meeting

Annual meeting of the congregation of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church was held on Tuesday evening in the Parish Hall and Church. A covered dish supper was served at 6:30 by a committee of the Ladies Auxiliary, after which the business session was conducted.

Financial reports were given by Treasurer Alfred James and Accounting Warden Ralph Smith. Annual reports of church activities were given by Mrs. Clarence Woodruff; Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Robert Weaver, Woodworth Allen and Paul Goddard. Rev. William McClelland, rector, submitted his annual report and accounting of finances, membership, baptisms and confirmations for the past year.

The Church Budget for 1955 was approved by unanimous action of the congregation. All reports were accepted as read.

Election of new vestrymen was next order of business. Number of vestrymen was increased from twelve to fifteen because of the church's steady growth, and to permit more men to participate in the church government.

Elected for a term of three years were: John Stanley, Algert Antanatis, Calvin Hall, Edward Radcliffe and William Wright. Both Mr. Antanatis and Mr. Wright, who were serving unexpired terms, were elected to full terms. Floyd Sanders was elected for a term of two years and Robert Weaver for a term of one year.

Rev. Mr. McClelland appointed Paul Goddard as senior warden, and Clarence Woodruff, junior warden. Ralph Smith was reelected as accounting warden; Alfred James, reelected treasurer, and William Wright was reelected clerk to the vestry. Outgoing vestrymen were Joseph MacVeigh and John Sheehan.

Church of Binghamton, N. Y., will be in charge of the services.

Book Club To Hold Book Discussion

Book club members will participate in a book discussion at next Wednesday's meeting in Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex. Mrs. Warren Unger, newly elected president, will officiate at the business meeting. Mrs. E. A. Campbell and Mrs. E. C. Norcross, chairmen of hospitality, announce the hostess committee:

Mesdames Charles Eberle, Arnett Jones, Kay Walters, C. M. Booth, Robert Snyder, E. C. MacGowan, H. Ruggles, Walter Chamberlain, Theodore Ruff, Donald Trethaway, Garry Perchik, Franklin Wagner, Arthur Kusckke, Homer Moyer, Murray Scureman, D. T. Scott, John Humphrey, Robert Fleming, Miss Estella Goldsmith.

Centermoreland Church Plans Radio Program

Rev. Paul Griffis and the "Little White Church" Choir, who conduct the Television Program "Down Memory Lane" and the Radio Program "Songs at Sunrise," will be in the Baptist Church in Centermoreland, tonight at 8 o'clock. They will present a program in Word and Song, much as their TV and Radio programs which are heard over WNEB and WNEB-TV.

The public is cordially invited.
