OBITUARY

Dies Instantly Of Heart Attack

Roger Phillips, 62 Buried Monday

Roger Phillips, Sr., was buried in Oaklawn Cemetery Monday morning, after services conducted by Rev. William McClelland from the Knif-fen Funeral Home.

Mr. Phillips, 62, closed his eyes and died while sitting in a chair in the showroom of the L. L. Richardson Dodge agency where he was employed as a salesman. Finishing his day's work on Friday, he sat down to rest at 6 p.m., exchanged a few words with the manager, and passed away. He had been very ill with pneumonia several months ago, and had been frail since recovery. He was known to have a weak heart. Alfred Bronson, deputy coroner, attributed death to natural causes.

Mr. Phillips, a native of Plymouth, son of the late John and Margaret Jones Phillips, had made his home for the past five years in Dallas, after spending most of his life on South River Street.

He was a member of Prince of Peace Episcopal Church; Masonic Lodge 61, F&AM; Caldwell Consistory, and Irem Temple.

He is survived by a son, Roger, Jr., Wilkes-Barre, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Matlock, Haddon Heights, New Jersey.

School of the Valley View Chapel, Larksville Mountain, made her home for sixty-four years in Chase. Her husband Ira died eleven years ago. Her only son, Edward, lives on the home farm in another house. A granddaughter, Mary Lamoreaux, teaches at Lehman-Jackson-Ross High School.

Mrs. Lamoreaux was born near Hazleton, daughter of the late John and Mary Sippel.

She is survived by her son Edward; four grandchildren: Wesley and Mary Lamoreaux, Chase; Russell Lamoreaux, Jackson; Mrs. Anna Park, Atlantic City; brothers and sisters: Mrs. Ira VanOrden and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Chase; Henry Sippel and Mrs. Margaret James, Kingston; Mrs. Samuel Culver, Benton R. D.

Arrangements were by Bronson.

Mrs. Manzoni Dies At Mercy

Burial Tomorrow In St. Nicholas

Mrs. Alice Manzoni's death Tuesday afternoon at the Mercy Hospital was totally unexpected and a great shock to her family and friends. A sufferer for years from recurrent gallstone attacks, she was seized with an attack Sunday night, seemed to become easier after medication, but was taken to the hospital Tuesday morning in the Bronson ambulance. She went into shock shortly after admission and could not be operated upon.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 from the home in Jackson Township and at 9:30 from Gate of Heaven Church. Burial will be in St. Nicholas Cemetery.

Mrs. Manzoni was an ardent worker in church organizations and in the community, a member of Altar and Rosary and Jackson Fire Department Auxiliary. Only 51 at the time of her death, she leaves a stricken family.

Born in Jackson Township, she was the daughter of the late John and Mary Hallin McNally.

The McNally family were the first Catholics to move into the Back Mountain, four brothers, John, Thomas, James and Peter, settling in the area during the period 1839 1849. The only Catholic Church at that time was St. Mary's in Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Manzoni was descended from John.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph; children: Francis, Anna, Edward, John, Alice, Albert, Mary Catherine, and Mrs. Sidney Fielding, all at home; a grandchild and a sister, Anna McNally, at home.

A son, Joseph, died nine years ago at the age of 15.

Mrs. Charles Hemenway Loses Brother In Death

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hemenway, Hillside, were called to Deansboro last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hemenway's brother, Melvin Curtis Tuttle, who died unexpectedly at 45, of a coronary occlusion.

Mr. Tuttle, driving alone, felt himself stricken, and pulled off the road. He was able to turn off the ignition and bring the car to a safe halt before death overtook him. His family was stunned, as he had seemed in perfect health.

John Southwell On Way Back From Overseas

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Southwell, of Chase, have indisputable proof that their son is on the way back from France. All of young John's mail is being returned to sender as undeliverable. The assumption is that he sailed January 6 on an army transport and will land within a few days. His parents have not seen him for sixteen months.

Health Good At Dallas-Kingston

Mrs. Eleanor Austin, R. N., following a check at the five school buildings in the Dallas Borough-Kingston Township Jointure Tuesday morning, reports that the health of the pupils is good. Only two pupils are excluded from school and those two have measles.

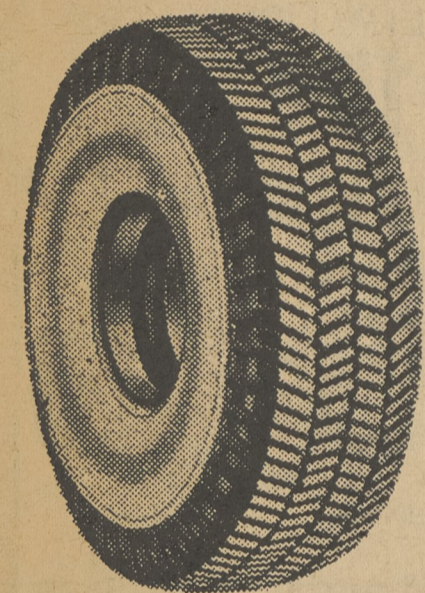

During the seventeen school days in December, Mrs. Austin supervised medical examinations of seventy-four pupils; eighty-five were weighed; and the hearing of seventy-eight pupils was recorded with the audiometer. Sixteen home calls were made and health corrections were completed in ten instances.

Mrs. Ruth Shupp Lies At Beaumont

Community Feels Her Loss Deeply

Mrs. Ruth Shupp, 60, was buried in Beaumont Cemetery Monday morning, following services conducted by Rev. Robert D. Yost at the Williams Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Henry, Clarence and George Shupp, and Harry Bigelow, nephews, and Joseph Layaou and Robert Morgan.

Mrs. Shupp died Thursday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Freda Shupp, Shavertown. A month before her death, she and her husband celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary. She was held in high esteem by her neighbors for her unflinching kindness.

A native of Nanticoke, daughter of the late Merritt and Della Condon Nafus, Mrs. Shupp had made her home for the past nine years in Beaumont.

She is survived by her husband, John; sons: John S., Jr., Kunkle; Clifford, Demunds; daughters: Freda Shupp, Shavertown; Mrs. Robert Rogers, Vernon; Mrs. Robert McCarty, Hatboro; Shirley Marie, at home; brothers: Edward Nafus, Dover, N. J.; Everett Nafus, Baltimore; sisters: Mrs. Stella Grey, Noxen; Mrs. Bennett Eckart, Endicott; Mrs. Charles Gensel, Lehman. There are nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Mrs. Lamoreaux Dies Aged 80

Buried Thursday At Cedar Crest

Mrs. Sophia A. Lamoreaux, 80, of Chase, was buried yesterday in Cedar Crest Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. Thomas Clemow from the home. Pallbearers were John and Christopher Coates, Harold Bertram, Melvin Wagner, John Gregory and Harry Law. Flower carriers were great grandchildren.

Mrs. Lamoreaux passed away Monday night at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, five days after admission. Mrs. Lamoreaux, preeminently a home-maker, though vitally interested in both services and Sunday
