Medicines in this wonderful age are very good. When your Physician writes you a prescription he can now more often expect a positive cure, instead of just hopefully wishing for good results.

Those five or ten dollar prescriptions usually save you months of illness, and may prevent serious operations. They are, "cheap", indeed when you consider how, "good", they are. Trust your Physician. He prescribes for your health, and selects the medicine you need most. We will keep their cost as low as possible.
