Den 1, Cub Scout Pack 281 Tours Dallas Post

Seven Cub Scouts of Den 1, Dallas Cub Scout Pack 281, accompanied by den-mother Mrs. Thomas E. Cease, toured the Dallas Post building Tuesday afternoon under guidance of Howard Risley, editor. They were particularly impressed with the linotype machines and the flat-bed press.

Present were Keith Sutton, Allan Jonathan Cease, Ronald Grant, Joseph Hand, William Ziegenfus, William Sutton, George Sawyer and Mrs. Cease.

Den 1, formed in March, 1954, has made a number of visits to points of interest, including Luzerne County Prison, where boys were guided by Warden William Healey, and Luzerne County Courthouse, where they were addressed by Judge William A. Valentine. January 29 they took a train trip to Leighton in company with 900 Cub Scouts from the Wilkes-Barre area. Mrs. Cease plans to take den members to the Commonwealth Telephone Company, to Hayfield and Orchard Farms, and other local points of interest, as part of a "Know Your Community" project.

Lake Noxen Cub Scouts Hold First Banquet

About one hundred twenty cub scouts and den mothers were served a delicious turkey dinner by members of the Noxen Lutheran Church Ladies Aid in the Lutheran Church Hall Saturday night when the newly organized cub scouts pack 531 of the Lake-Noxen area held its first blue and gold banquet. Pack 531 consists of three dens from Noxen and three from Harveys Lake.

Tables were decorated with white birch teepees and canoes and blue and white tapers. Wolf, bear or lion heads marked off each den. Programs were written on miniature scout hats and favors were cub scout busts.

Speakers of the evening were Robert Z. Bellas, Dick Williams, Earl Black and Walter Bronson; Invocation by Rev. Henry Kraft.

Den mothers are: Mrs. Eleanor Edwards, Mrs. Elwood Whitesell, Mrs. Marguerite Shaver, Harveys Lake; Mrs. Ruth Patton, Mrs. Francis Kresge, Mrs. Arline Traver, Noxen.
