Noxen Man Dies Of Heart Attack

Arba Dimmick's Death A Shock

Arba Dimmick's death at 76 was a great shock to his family and Noxen friends Saturday afternoon. Mr. Dimmick, finishing his day's work as carpenter, sat down in a chair at his home, took a long breath, and died of a heart attack, within five minutes after entering the house.

He was buried Tuesday afternoon in Orcutt Cemetery. His brother Dana, pastor of Trucksville Free Methodist Church, assisted Rev. Ruth L. Underwood of the Alderson-Noxen Charge in conducting funeral services from the Nulton Funeral Home.

A lifelong resident of Noxen, Mr. Dimmick's parents were the late Morrell and Emily Frear Dimmick. He was a member of Junior O.U.A.M. of Noxen, Limited Twenty Gun Club, Noxen and Monroe Sportsmen's Club, and an honorary member of

Mrs. Sutliff, 78 Dies Saturday

Buried Wednesday At Bloomingdale

Mrs. Laura Sutliff, 78, Broadway, died Saturday morning at the Barnes Nursing Home in Lehman, where she had been a patient for several weeks, suffering from heart trouble. She was buried Wednesday afternoon at Bloomingdale, three ministers conducting services at the Bronson Funeral Home: Rev. E. J. Waterstripe and Rev. Donald Weldon, retired and present pastors of Church of Christ, and Rev. Ira Button, Sweet Valley Christian Church. Mrs. Sutliff, the former Laura Lutes, daughter of David L. and Elizabeth W. Emory Lutes, was born in Huntville. She moved to Raven Creek as a young girl, and upon marriage with the late John Sutliff, who died in June, 1950, took up residence in the family home- stead at Broadway. She was a member of Raven Creek Presbyterian Church.

Noxen Volunteer Fire Company, for which he put in many hours of carpenter work gratis.

He is survived by his widow, the former Mary Rohbe, Wilkes-Barre; daughters: Mrs. Bernard Dendler and Mrs. George VanCampen, Noxen; a son Robert, Cass Lake, Minn.; seven grandchildren; brothers: Rev. Dana Dimmick, Trucksville; Rodney and Ralph, Nebraska; John, Noxen; Shuhael, Danville.

Her son, Willard, is famous for his green tomato projects in Sweet Valley and Florida. There are four grandchildren. A sister, Mrs. Claude Laubach, Sunbury, and four brothers: Dr. Emory and Dr. Edmund Lutes, Wilkes-Barre; Herman, Cambridge, and Oakley, Indiana, survive.

Mrs. Anna Estock, 66, Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Anna Estock, 66, was laid to rest Wednesday morning in St. Mary's Cemetery, Hanover Township, following a requiem mass celebrated at St. Therese's.

Mrs. Estock died at her home on Overbrook Road Sunday evening, after a final illness of a week, coming after a long period of invalidism.

A resident of Overbrook Road for the last forty years, Mrs. Estock was a member of St. Therese's, and active in its organizations. Her parents were the late George and Anna Rakos Nytic, natives of Austria-Hungary, who settled in Wilkes-Barre upon coming to this country.

Her husband John, survives. There are two sons: Edward, Dallas, and John, Wilkes-Barre; four daughters: Mrs. Frank Sedler, Dallas; Wilhelmna, at home; Mrs. Irene Babey, Newark; Mrs. A. L. Gorieski, Baltimore in failing health for two years; Mrs. Mary Welsko, and Mrs. Veronica Wagner, Wilkes-Barre; thirteen grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Stella Brace, Hunlocks Creek, was buried in Sorbertown Cemetery Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Oscar Saxe officiating at the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mrs. Brace died in her home Friday morning, aged 78. She had been in failing health for two years, more and more confined to a chair, but not acutely ill until a week before death.

She was born in Plymouth Township, daughter of the late Asher L. and Susan Wildoner Davenport. A resident of fifty years standing at Hunlocks Creek, Mrs. Brace belonged to the Hunlocks Creek Methodist Church.

Except for a son Charles and a daughter Lenorma, both at home, there are no lineal descendants, though there are a number of nephews in the area. Charles Brace died forty-eight years ago, leaving his widow with two very small children.
