Free Methodist Church Holds Children's Day

Trucksville Free Methodist Sunday School observed Children's Day Sunday morning.

The theme of the program was "Christ and the Children." A feltogram picture, "Jesus Blessing the Children," occupied the center back of the platform.

After the opening song "Jesus Saves," Mrs. Frank Mathers, teacher of the Bible Class, offered prayer. Children of the Beginners, Primary and Junior classes united in singing a number of motion choruses, recited scripture verses, and gave recitations.

The Junior High School class gave a special selection in song, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise."

Rev. Dana Dimmick gave a short talk, taking the verse, "Suffer Little Children, and Forbid Them Not," as a text.

Two babies, William James Sutton and James Wickham were baptized by the pastor.

Kings Daughters Annual Garden Party Thursday

Members and guests of Kings Daughter's Class, Shavertown Methodist, who need transportation for the annual Garden Party on Thursday, may call Mrs. Budd Hirlman, who will arrange for cars. The committee promises plenty of parking space close to the home of Mrs. Thomas Graham, hostess, 211 S. Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown. Mrs. Elizabeth Conrad will read.
