Your Neighbor Cooks

By MRS. HANFORD ECKMAN
Mrs. Hanford L. Eckman, Macell Ave., a graduate of Purdue University is a native of South Bend, Indiana. Since her marriage to Hanford L. Eckman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hanford Eckman, Huntsville, she has made her home in various parts of our country including Bay Shore, Long Island and Austin, Texas. They have also lived a year in Oslo, Norway, where Liz Jean their eighteen month old daughter was born. Cooking has always been her hobby. Since she has lived in many communities she has had a good opportunity to learn many interesting and unique recipes and homemaking ideas. —Editor

In Your Neighbor Cooks we plan to feature Back Mountain housewife's favorite recipes.

This week Mrs. J. F. Besecker, Norton Ave., in Dallas, has given us some ideas for good summer desserts.

If you like to end your dinner with a piece of good homemade pie try her Lemon Sponge Pie. It's a little different and very good.

LEMON SPONGE PIE
¼ cup melted oleo
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons flour
3 slightly beaten egg yolks
4 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
2 cups milk
3 stiffly beaten egg whites
1 recipe plain pastry
Blend oleo, sugar and flour. Add egg yolks, lemon juice, lemon peel and milk. Fold in egg whites. Pour into 9 or 10 inch pastry lined pie pan. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) 9 minutes then in slow oven (350 degrees) 25 minutes.

LIME SHERBERT
For a really refreshing dessert try Lime Sherbert. Its pale green color and delicate lime flavor do wonders to cool you even in the hottest weather. Mrs. Besecker's recipe makes about one and one half quarts.

Dissolve 1 package lime Jello in 1 cup boiling water. When cool add juice of 2 lemons. Add 1½ cups sugar. Add 3 cups milk and 1 cup evaporated milk last. Stir into ice trays and freeze about 1½ hours. Remove and pour into bowl. Beat until smooth. Return to freezing trays and freeze.

If you have a recipe you'd like to share with your neighbors please send it to the Dallas Post or call Mrs. Eckman, Dallas 4-0667.

Mr. And Mrs. Olin Gordon Celebrate 65th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Gordon, Pike's Creek, will celebrate their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary Wednesday quietly at their home. Mrs. Gordon, still active as a young girl, is eighty-one, and Mr. Gordon, eighty-seven.

Mrs. Gordon is the former Liva Hughie, daughter of the late George and Emily Barber Hughie of Plymouth. Mr. Gordon is son of Joseph and Alvira Hawley, Gordon, who cultivated the farm now occupied by the Olin Gordons.

The couple was married in the Maple Grove Methodist Church, which they still attend by the late Rev. William Rawling, and went to housekeeping in the old homestead where they have spent all their married life except ten years when

Mr. Gordon was lumbering and it seemed more convenient to move to Kingston, outlet for the lumber. Ever since returning to the farm, they have worked it, and even now have a vegetable garden, flowers, chickens and ducks.

In the long winter months when they don't get outside much they enjoy their radio and television and Mrs. Gordon tidies up the house and crochets doilies and rugs for the children and grandchildren.

There are five children: Mrs. Letha Baker, Forksville, Pa., Roy, Bloomsburg, Lawrence, Pike's Creek, Wayne, Pike's Creek and living right close, serving as handy man when necessary, Mrs. Thelma Harrison, Atlantic City; twenty-one grandchildren and twenty-six great grandchildren.
