In attendance were officers of the Divan of Irem Temple, officers of philanthropy, the 17 hospitals it the various Shrine Clubs serving in the Western territory of Irem Temple in Williamsport, Sunbury, Columbia County area, chairmen and 1922 more than $25,000,000 in the co-chairmen of the Membership care and cure of children incapacommittees for the Williamsport, Towanda, Sunbury, Bloomsburg and Watsontown districts, together with gard to race, color or creed. The Potentate's Aides from other sections where membership drives are contemplated.

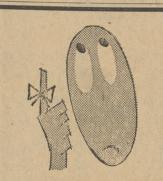

Following the parade of the Uniformed Units in Bloomsburg, dinner will be served to the members of Irem Temple and to the class of candidates in the college diningroom, and the Ceremonial will then be staged, beginning at approximately 6:30 p.m. with a concert by Irem Temple's 80-piece band, musical selections by Irem Temple Chanters, drills by the Arab Patrol and the drill-team of the Legion of Honor, following which will be the spectacular entrance of the Uniformed Units to receive the Illustrious Potentate, Herman C. Kersteen, and his Divan in full costume.

The ceremonial section in full costume and in full form will then be staged to properly initiate all canover to the Irem ceremonial producers for the traditional second section, which is replete with fun.

forget something?

Maybe it's the monthly water check for your car's battery? Of course! And a battery without water is as good as no battery at all. But wait! There's no need to worry...not if that battery is a Cities Service Tri-Fill battery. The Tri-Fill actually needs water just three times a year in normal car use. Of course, a monthly water check is best...but if you forget, the Tri-Fill won't let you down ... won't run dry on water. Unlike ordinary batteries, it contains a great water reserve that allows for human error. If your present battery is getting weak, stop in this week for the remarkable Tri-Fill and enjoy years starting per-
