

Miss Evelyn K. Will Becomes Bride Of Leonard H. Ide, Jr.

At a very pretty wedding, Evelyn Kay Will, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Will, of Penns Neck, N. J., became the bride of Leonard Henry Ide, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henry Ide, Sr., of Lehman, Saturday at 4 p.m. Dr. John R. Bodo performed the double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton, N. J.

Mrs. Harry Krimmel played the wedding music and Janet Kessler sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white chantilly lace and nylon tulle over bridal satin gown styled with high neckline and fitted bodice with long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her full skirt was fashioned with peplum and chapel train. She wore a half hat from which fell a finger tip veil of French illusion and carried a cascade bouquet of white fugi mums and ivy.

Jean Muirhead, of Princeton, was maid of honor. She selected ballerina length gown of aqua nylon made with low neckline and short sleeves and matching half hat. She carried yellow and pink mums.

Joan Holmes, of Penns Neck, and Mrs. Kenneth Gossard, of Allentown, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor in yellow, matching half hats, and carried yellow and pink mums.

Mrs. Will, mother of the bride, chose navy street dress with pink accessories and orchid mums, and Mrs. Ide, mother of the bridegroom, powder blue ensemble, black accessories, and red roses.

Walter Chamberlain, of Lehman, was best man and George Cross, of Scranton, and Richard Glace, of Trucksville, ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Nassau Tavern and the couple left for New England. They will reside in Morristown, N. J.

Mrs. Ide is a graduate of Princeton High School and Mercer Hospital School of Nursing. She is doing general duty at the Morristown Memorial Hospital. Mr. Ide was graduated from Lehman High School and served for two years with the U. S. Army in Germany. He is ballistics technician with the Hercules Powder Company in Kenil, New Jersey.

Local residents who attended the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ide, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ide, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Oncay, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Croop, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Case, Mr. and Mrs. Lancelord Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Wagner, Jr., Mrs. Donald Perrego, Mrs. Norman Bevan, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Knarr, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Knarr, Jr., Joyce Oncay, Lorraine Keller, Eleanor and Alice Ide, Andrew Barto, Jr., Walter Chamberlain, Homer Middleton, Jr., Charles Parks, Betty Knarr, Richard Glace, George Cross, Frank Prutzman and James Case.

Local People To Act As Patrons At Waverly

Mrs. J. Archbald Brooks, Mrs. John Humphrey, Jr., Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, Mrs. J. Henry Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Risley, Mrs. John Ruggles, Mrs. Harry Ruggles, Jr., and Mrs. Arthur Strayer, Back Mountain residents, are among the one hundred patrons of the twelfth annual Waverly Antiques Show to be held Monday and Tuesday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Twenty-three exhibitors, among them Primo Berrettini of Dallas, will display some of their finest antiques and there will be a loan exhibit of a Colonial mahogany bed room.

Dinner will be served each evening at one of the churches just across the street: Monday at Waverly Methodist, and Tuesday at the First Baptist.

Mrs. Louis H. Healy is chairman of the affair, which many local people attend annually, and Mrs. Frank E. Hemelright, vice chairman.

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hildebrandt, Machell Avenue, spent the weekend at Furance, Pa., visiting Mrs. John McSparron and her sons, Charles and Collins. When they arrived, they found their son, James, home. Mrs. James Hildebrandt was spending the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fletcher, Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hedden and son, Carl, have returned to their home on Machell Avenue, after spending the summer at the Turner cottage at Lake Nuangola. Carl leaves for Cornell University next week where he will be a member of the Freshman Class.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elicker and Carol and Eddie, of Narbeth, Pa.,

spent the holiday weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe MacVeigh, Center Hill Road.

Clifford Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Huey and Ruthie, Lehigh Street, Shavertown, spent the weekend at Orchard Park, N. Y., visiting Mr. Fink's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Henning.

David Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Patton of Noxen, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson at Williamsport, recently. While there he saw everyone of the Little League World Series games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Yorzinski and children, formerly of Norwalk, Conn., have moved to Burdendale Road, Dallas. Mr. Yorzinski is employed at Natona Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. David Williams,

Huntsville, and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Yocum, Chase, spent the holiday weekend at Bedford Springs. The Williams boys were guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Williams, at Thornhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eberly, Jr., and family have returned to their home on Lehigh Street, Shavertown, after enjoying a vacation at the shore.

A big man is not one who makes no mistakes, but one who is bigger than any mistake he makes.

Pattons To Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patton, of Noxen, will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary tomorrow with open house from three until eight o'clock. In the event of rain, the affair will be held at the Noxen Methodist Church.

The Pattons are parents of nine children, five of whom are living: Derwin, James, Bruce, Mrs. William MacMillan of Noxen; Mrs. Rudy Adam, Binghamton, N. Y.; thirteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
