The Lend-A-Hand Women's Club had its monthly meeting at the IOOF Hall Thursday, Sept. 8, when plans were made to have a Halloween Party for the October meeting. To vary the program it was decided each member will pack a suitcase with some Halloween costume which will be bought and worn by some other member. The committee for the Sept. meeting, Mesdames Robert Belles, Wayne Hadsall, Warren Johnson, and Emil Balewski, did a most commendable job with entertainment and refreshments.

Kenneth Jackson enjoyed seeing the Yankees play in New York, last Sunday.

The Warren Johnsons accompanied Mrs. Johnson's brother, Morgan Lewis, of Wilkes-Barre, to Penn State University where he enrolled as a member of the Junior Cass last weekend.

The George Rymans, of Endicott, N. Y., and Mrs. Abram Rymann, of Wyoming, were recent visitors with Mrs. Addie Austin.

The Ned Dresses have purchased the home formerly inhabited by Mrs. William Martin.
