National Birthday

Members of Meeker Methodist WSCS celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of its founding Tuesday evening with a birthday cake blazing with candles, which was cut by the president, Mrs. Lloyd Rogers. Mrs. Russel Steele spoke on "How Rich A Heritage," sketching the national history of the organization, and Mrs. Rogers took the local angle.

Mrs. Letha Wolfe led devotions. Mrs. Eugene Robinson reviewed a chapter in the study book. Hostesses were Mrs. Karl Robbennack and Mrs. Robinson. Others present were Mesdames Morton Connelly, William and Arthur Hoover, Gordon James, L. W. Karschner, Walter Kytile, Sadie Rossman, John and Albert Rebenack, Glendoris Shilanski, Helene VanBuskirk, Walter Wolfe, Helen Rood, Fred Winter, Miss Carrie Wolfe.

Mrs. Harry Brown Breaks Leg In Fall

Mrs. Harry Brown, Church Street, tripped on the top step of the cellar stairs Saturday afternoon, fracturing the same leg that was broken some years ago. She was taken to Mercy Hospital by Dallas Community Ambulance, Al Shaffer, Leslie Barstow, and Leonard Harvey officiating. She was in traction for nine months before union could be accomplished the last time the bone was broken.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Peter Westfield wish to thank the community for the sincere sympathy extended them during the time of their recent bereavement, and especially those friends and neighbors who furnished cars, sent flowers and cards, and performed thoughtful acts of personal service.
