Auxiliary Gives $1000 To Fund

Lehman Women Assist Firemen

Lehman Fire Company Auxiliary voted to contribute $1000 to the Fire Hall building fund at Monday night's meeting, practically depleting the treasury to assist the men in their proposed addition. The new portion of the building will cost $6,000, half of which is already at hand.

Building will start shortly, plans taking advantage of the slope of the land to provide lower quarters for fire truck and ambulance. The structure will have a separate entrance. Placed at one corner of the present building and farther down the street, it will not interfere with the balance of the present design.

The interior of the original building will be given over entirely to a much enlarged meeting room and kitchen. The partition between the present meeting room and the fire truck room will be removed, with knotty pine panelling extended to the walls to match the original meeting room. Plans call for an area large enough for dancing.

Women of the auxiliary plan to remodel the present kitchen, to provide more space and larger serving facilities. In advance of remodeling, Mrs. Kenneth Hess was appointed by Mrs. Stuart Marks, president, to reduce the kitchen to order after a summer of non-occupancy.

Weatherlys To Spend Winter In Dallas

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Weatherly, Grace Church, Kingston, will be winter residents of Dallas while the new rectory is being finished. They will move into Mrs. Roscoe Lee's home in mid-October, two or three days after Mrs. Lee and Jack start for Florida.

The old rectory on Butler Street has been sold, and though the new building is under roof, the interior is far from completed.

The Weatherlys expect to enjoy Dallas. A number of communicants of Grace Episcopal Church live in this area.

The business meeting following the covered dish supper was devoted largely to a discussion of ways and means to make money for remodeling the kitchen, an expenditure not included in the Fire Company budget. With more space to prepare and serve meals, the auxiliary will be able to cater to larger groups, with larger receipts expected.

Mrs. Marks wishes to give special credit to the original members of the Lehman Auxiliary, whose unflagging efforts raised the greater part of the money now presented to the Fire Hall building fund.

They are Mesdames Morton Connelly, Anna Beisel, Edward Oncay, Charles Ely, Leonard Ide, George Stolarick, Lewis Ide, Howard Ehret, Clara Mekeel, James Davenport, Sr., Glendoris Shilanski, Sadie Rossmann, Maude Reese, Lancelot Sutton and Minnie Hoover.
