The popular couple was married November 29, 1905 at the Methodist Parsonage in Hancock, N. Y., by the Rev. B. Eldridge, and shortly thereafter established their home in the old homestead where they have lived ever since.

Librarian Breaks Rib, No Apparent Cause

Miss Miriam Lathrop, Back Mountain Library librarian, has a broken rib which is slowing her down a little, but not incapacitating her. X-rays at Nesbitt Hospital on Friday showed a clean break. Just before Wednesday's Book Club meeting she felt a stabbing pain, laid it to indigestion, took some soda, and dismissed the matter from her mind.

Prince Of Peace Has Fifty For Breakfast

Despite hazardous driving conditions, fifty men of the community assembled last Sunday morning in Prince of Peace Church at 8 o'clock to participate in the Corporate Communion services, and partake of breakfast which followed.

An excellent talk, on proposed and present pending legislation at Harrisburg, was given by Senator Harold E. Flack. Senator Flack's discourse outlined the tedious procedure of all types of bills, amendments and legislative enactments, and brought to everyone present the realization that the legislator's job is far from being a simple un-complicated one.

Corporate Communion services were conducted by Rev. William McClelland, rector. The ladies of the Altar Guild served breakfast immediately after services.

Present, in addition to Senator Flack and Rev. Mr. McClelland, were: Joseph MacVeigh, Oswald Griffiths, Paul Goddard, Tommy Andrew, Tom Goddard, Jack Stanley, Woodworth Allen, Ralph Smith, Attorney Roscoe B. Smith, Attorney Jonathan C. Valentine, Charles Fleck, Albert Antanaitis, Samuel McKensie, Charles Brooke, Edward Ratcliffe, Clarence A. Woodruff, B. W. Yocum, Lloyd B. Kear, Leon Gould, Llewellyn A. Jones, W. H. Krimmel, R. E. Dart, Walter Kozemchak, Robert A. Buntz, Harry Moore, Randall Taylor, Charles DeWees, Thomas M. Hillyer, Peyton B. Lee, Al D'Amario, Tom Hillyer, W. C. Prothero, R. N. Stauffer, Jr., Edwin T. Roth, P. E. Rethoffer, Jr., S. H. Morgan, John Vernon, James Besecker, Jr., John Rogers, Robert Johnston, Ted Raub, Frank M. Pokorny, Jim Jones, Jimmy Jones, Jr., Robert Ray, David T. Perry, and Donald J. Evans.

The next regularly scheduled Corporate Communion and Breakfast will be held Sunday morning, December 18th, at 8 o'clock. Cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Your Neighbor Cooks

BY MRS. H. L. ECKMAN

The "cookout," which has become so popular recently, need not be bypassed because of low temperatures or wintry weather. Just hold an indoor outing, and set the stage accordingly. A portable grill may be set up anywhere. Decorations and table settings with a rustic air can add the outdoor touch.

But to family or guests—young and old alike—the most important question will be "What's cooking?" And nothing will sharpen the appetite and put folks in an out-of-doors mood as quickly as the incomparable savory tang of hamburgers and cheeseburgers sizzling on the grill.

Warm rolls, a wide selection of relishes, a healthy salad or a big pot of beans will be good bets for the balance of the menu.

Father is never too old to learn, and his sons are never too young to think they can't teach him.

"NOTHING IS SO EASY AS TO DECEIVE ONE'S SELF"

(Author's name below)
When a Physician becomes sick he always goes to another Physician to diagnose his ailment. He knows that no one can properly treat himself. Symptoms of illness must be carefully noted and studied impassionately.

Do not deceive yourself by attempting self treatments. It is worth many times your Physician's charge to know that your health is in capable hands. When he tells you that your illness is not serious, as most often is the case, it is a wonderful feeling. Should some more difficult sickness threaten your health, an early treatment usually prevents any serious consequences.
