School Christmas vacation starts Thursday, Dec. 22, at 2 p. m.
Mrs. Fay Smith and daughter, Norma, were at West Orange, N. J., last weekend.
The Christmas P. T. A. Party was well attended Friday, Dec. 9, in spite of the stormy weather. Following the playing of carols "Nelson and His Puppets" began the evening's entertainment with worthwhile hints on children's behavior prior to Christmas. The games, prepared by the teachers, were enjoyed. Appropriate games, prizes, favors, and tasty refreshments totaled a most successful party for which these committees are to be commended: Program, Frederick Weiss, James Kuhl, and Donald Jones, Sr.; Games, Mesdames Ernest

Brown, Edward MacDougall, Ellsworth Field, Raymond Gunton, William A. Austin, Samuel Davis, and Fred Case; Refreshments, Mesdames Frederick Weiss, William Rifenbery, Kenneth Jackson, Warren Johnson, and Franklin Clark. The refreshment committee was grateful for the delicious cookies donated by appreciative parents and friends.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dress and Mrs. John Williams of Wyoming have returned from Ashland, Ky., where they visited the Dress's son, Laning, and his family.

Mrs. Emory Straley, Mrs. Norman Frantz, and Mrs. William Arch Austin were hostesses to the Lend-A-Hand Women's Club at the home of Mrs. Austin Thursday. During the business meeting it was unanimously voted to give $5.00 to the Noxen Fire Company Auxiliary and to send Christmas cards enclosing one dollar to all service men of the town. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Emory Straley Thursday, Jan. 12, when each member is to be responsible for her own hot dogs for the "Winter Sports Party." After carols were sung and gifts exchanged, games and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. Nile Clark was a surgical patient at the General Hospital last week.
Capt. Charles Moyer of the U. S. Air Force was here with the Herbert Goodwins for doe season.

Bird Club Plans For Bird Count

Audubon Tour Will Be December 27

The Library Bird Club decided at Thursday night's meeting in the Library Annex, to follow procedure of the Audubon Society in taking a bird-count two days after Christmas. Members will meet at the Acme parking lot December 27 at 8 a.m. and visit spots where winter birds congregate, starting at Harveys Lake, taking in Huntsville, Lehman, and possibly Perrins Marsh and Ceasetown.

Edwin Johnson, president, reported that an average of twenty species are seen commonly, and that with all members on the alert, more varieties may be sighted.

Snow buntings are around, and several pleated woodpeckers, also a rare variety of junco.

Harry Allen reported boat-tail grackles and siskins sighted, and a goldfinch which winters over his porch light.

The Sunday following the Bird Club meeting was a good one for bird-watching. Frank Jackson, Ed Johnson, and Mr. Allen saw a number of varieties and in larger flocks than usual. Half a dozen evening grosbeaks came to Mr. Allen's feeding station, advance scouts for the invasion to be expected late in January.

Grassland May Yield Feed Equal To Corn

Grassland may be as productive in terms of feed as the same land in grain, Dr. J. B. Washko, Penn State agronomist reports in the current issue of "Science for the Farmer," quarterly publication of the agricultural experiment station. In terms of dry matter per acre per season, alfalfa-late orchardgrass produced 4.74 tons in tests he conducted last year.

A combination of birdsfoot trefoil, timothy, and Kentucky bluegrass produced 3.23 tons; birdsfoot trefoil with late orchardgrass yielded 2.61 tons; birdsfoot with tall oatgrass, 2.51 tons, and birdsfoot with reed canarygrass, 2.42 tons.

Calculated in terms of feed production, the alfalfa-late orchardgrass made the equivalent of 137 bushels of shelled corn per acre. Similarly, the birdsfoot trefoil-timothy-bluegrass mixture produced the equivalent of 98.5 bushels of corn, a creditable return from cropland, he reports.
