Philharmonic Offers Special Family Memberships Good For 3 Concerts

Mrs. Stanley S. Davies, West Dallas, a co-chairman of the membership committee for the Wyoming Valley Philharmonic Society, is accepting subscriptions under the family plan during the present membership campaign. Actively working for the Philharmonic during the past few years, she has contributed greatly in the development of this civic project which is now entering its fourth season.

The family membership plan has been formed to encourage group family participation and enjoyment to live music. Membership for $6.60 entitles two adults and a child to attend the three orchestral concerts scheduled during the early part of 1956. The first concert will be held at Irem Temple on January 9th. The program will feature 10 year-old piano prodigy Abbott Lee Ruskin. He will play Mozart's Piano Concerto in A Major with the Philharmonic orchestra under the direction of Ferdinand Liva, with John Detroy, head of the Music Department at Wilkes College, as associate conductor.

March 5, the date of the second concert, will highlight Romy Shevelov, noted violinist as the guest artist. The last in the series will be the ever popular "Pop" concert to be given April 23.

Attractive blue folders have been mailed to fully describe the concert season. Anyone wishing to have one of the descriptive folders or further membership information, may contact Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Gregory Ferenbach or Mrs. Ray Turner, who are working together for the membership campaign.

Plans Retirement Home For Elderly
Mrs. Virginia Beberus, Cliffside Avenue, Trucksville, plans a new kind of retirement home for elderly people. Long known as operating a convalescent home for patients requiring bed care, she is now opening her doors to elderly men and women who do not require anything except a comfortable home, good food, and pleasant surroundings.

Since returning from Philadelphia where she has been staying for the past two months, Mrs. Beberus has not taken guests requiring nursing care. Modified forms of recreation will be provided, suitable for residents retaining their interest in life, but for one reason or other not able to continue in their own homes. The home will have the atmosphere of a club, with community of interest the keynote.

Farm Employers Subject To Tax

S.S. Taxes Apply To Farm Workers

Farmer employers are reminded that Social Security taxes apply to cash wages paid to every farm worker to whom to employer paid $100.00 or more in cash wages during the year 1955.

Social Security taxes are imposed on both employers and employees. The employer and employee tax are 2 percent of taxable wages paid. The employer must withhold 2 percent from the employees' wages. Payment of the 2 percent withheld, together with the employer's 2 percent tax, must be made by the employer.

District Director F. P. Graham, Scranton, said that every farm employer who owes these taxes must file a return on Form 943 and pay the taxes on or before January 31, 1956.

Farm employers are urged to make timely returns and payments to avoid penalties and interest which may be imposed for late filing or failure to file.

Any employer subject to these taxes who has not registered or who has not applied for an identification number should do so at once. The required registration Form SS-4 can be obtained from the District Director or the nearest office of the Social Security Administration. The SS-4 should be filed with the District Director when it is completed. Registered employers will be supplied forms and instructions by the District Director.

Farmer employers in doubt as to their social security obligations should write their District Director of Internal Revenue for Circular A. Circular A explains the requirements with respect to withholding of social security taxes from farm employees' wages.
