Why a Fine Camera?

You'll be the proud owner of a camera you'll use with solid picture-taking satisfaction year after year. In sunshine or shade, cloudy or bright, in rain or snow, indoors or out, you'll get the picture in sparkling black and white or beautiful color. No more will you miss that all important picture, because unpredictable Mr. Sun chose to stay behind a cloud.

You will get those wonderful action shots by using a fast shutter speed.

You will be able to focus your camera for sharp, clear pictures and enlargements. No more fuzzy out-of-focus pictures.

No more waste of film and money on pictures that are disappointing.

So... for a truly fine camera

Kindergartners Study All About Fire Trucks

Fire Chief Nort Bert, Assistant Chief Al Shaffer, and Chief of Police Russell Honeywell explained all about fire trucks to eager kindergartners on Tuesday, entertaining them in relays morning and afternoon. Mrs. Charles James, Barbara Clark, and Mrs. Jay VandenHout, Dallas Borough-Kingston Township kindergarten teachers, escorted groups to the Dallas Borough building for instruction.

Chief Bert reports that children explored the fire truck thoroughly, instinctively knew where the siren could be located, and tried on the fire helmets. He states that they asked such intelligent questions that he concluded they had all had basic information on the subject. "Smartest group of kids" he ever saw in the fire hall, he said.

"It would be tragic if, in labor's craving for greater union protection and government paternalism, we lost faith in the work of free men—and thereby lost everything."—NAM President Cola G. Parker.
