

Mrs. Vera C. Ashton Lies At Oaklawn

Mrs. Vera C. Ashton, RN, Alderson, was buried Thursday afternoon in Oaklawn Cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Ruth L. Underwood at the Williams Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Charles Jones, Albert Ashton, William Kelly, William Beck, Robert Beck, and Harry Jones, Jr.

Mrs. Ashton, 60, passed away Monday afternoon after several months of illness. Daughter of the late Philip C. and Margaret Yale Jones, she was born in Plymouth and attended Plymouth schools. She won her degree in nursing at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital training school.

After several years of duty in New York City, Mrs. Ashton returned to Kingston, where she engaged in supervisory work at Nesbitt Hospital after spending some time in private practice.

Six years ago the family moved to Alderson.

Mrs. Ashton was a member of Alderson Methodist Church, its WSCS, Harveys Lake Womans Club, and Daniel C. Roberts Fire Company Auxiliary.

She is survived by her husband, Fuller Ashton; a son, Philip W. Urban, Hempstead, L. I.; brothers and sisters: Mrs. Harry Beck, Harveys Lake; Mrs. Willard Gregory, Forty Fort; Sheldon L. Jones, and Harry G. Jones, Wilkes-Barre; and Russell P. Jones, Kingston.

Breakfast For Anglers

Harveys Lake Post, American Legion, will serve a pancake and sausage breakfast, with plenty of hot coffee, for frozen fishermen on the first day of fishing season, starting at 4 Sunday morning. The committee promises warm quarters at the airplane hangar near the Alderson end of the lake. For those who wish only coffee, provision will be made. There is a move afoot to serve extra coffee to anglers along the shore, if there is sufficient demand. Pancakes are by Pillsbury, milk by Pet. No limit on pancakes.
