Truckville Students Visit Dallas Post

Truckville sixth grade pupils who toured the Dallas Post print shop and newspaper office on Tuesday were: Jimmy Smith, Joseph Yagloski, Melvin Olver, Susan Weigel, George Apaliski, Sharon DeRemer, Joyce Anderson, Carl Jean Bottoms, Linda Lee Wolfe, Libby Cleasby, Mary Bennett, Betty Jean Davis, Charles Weed, Edward Jenkins, Barry Derolf, Fred Kirkendall, Rusty Greenley, Leslie Broad, Carol Anderson, Louise Sutton, Willard Bullock, Beatrice Mayo, Louise Hadsall, Karen Muldowney, Dana Jones, Richard VanEtten, Richard Brown, Patricia Mullins, Alma Grey, Elsa Orchard, Dennis Blair, Dorothy Martin, Carol Lee Spare, Barbara Hildebrand, and Suzanne Pritchard. The sixth grade teacher who helped the staff convey the visitors safely through the maze of linotype machines, power cutters, folders, and presses was Miss Janice Zoyviak.

Virginia Plans European Trip

Will Fly July 1
To Join Teachers

Virginia Ferry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferry, Dallas, will make a six weeks tour of Europe this summer, flying from Idlewild July 1 to join four other fellow teachers from the Mt. Pleasant Consolidated Schools in Wilmington, Delaware. The four teachers will meet Virginia in Oslo with a car which they will have picked up in England the week before Virginia's arrival.

The party will tour the Scandinavian Peninsula, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, and France. They expect to leave the car in Paris and return home by boat, arriving August 20. Virginia, not arriving as soon as her companions, will not be able to tour England, the first leg of the trip.

Virginia, a graduate of Dallas Borough High School in 1943 and College Misericordia in 1947, has been teaching for nine years. She is well on the way to a Masters Degree, having completed her thesis on Education in Mathematics.

Fred H. Schultz Lies At Warden

Heart Attack Fatal
To Retired Coal Man

Fred H. Schultz, Harveys Lake, was buried yesterday afternoon in Warden Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. Kenneth O'Neill from the Williams Funeral Home and Idetown Methodist Church. Pallbearers were: Elwood Davis, Carl Thome, Reese Francis, John Brown, William Zimnisky, and Bruce Williams.

Mr. Schultz, 65, died shortly after admission to Nesbitt Hospital Monday afternoon, suffering from a heart attack.

A native of Wilkes-Barre, his parents were the late Abraham and Elizabeth Miers Schultz. Formerly a resident of Alderson, he lived in Plymouth for many years before returning in 1953 to the Lake. Last November he retired from employment as Glen Alden Colliery clerk after forty-five years with that company.

He was a member of Idetown Methodist Church and its Men's Bible Class; Plymouth Lodge, F&AM; Valley Chapter 214; Royal Arch Masons; and Jr. OUAM of Plymouth.

He is survived by his widow, the former Lula Keating, Edwardsville; two sons Lewis, Idetown, and Rev. Fred B. Schultz, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Salem, N. J.; a daughter, Mrs. Claude Lore, Wilmington, Del.; eight grandchildren; and a brother, Arthur, Wilkes-Barre.
