Sending Spirit

Lesson for May 27, 1956

IF THE Descending Spirit is the story of the second chapter of Acts, the thirteenth tells part of the story of the Sending Spirit. People may be very much interested in the Descending Spirit but not enough in the Sending Spirit. People today like Simon of Samaria in olden times, want the Holy Spirit to descend into their hearts—but for the wrong reasons, sometimes. We want the Spirit to help us do what we want to do, to accomplish our plans, to make us persuasive and popular personalities. But the Spirit of God, although everybody's aid, is nobody's aide. The aide to a general is just the general's right arm, his tongue—whatever the General wants done, the aide is there to see it done. The Holy Spirit is no aide!

God Can Break Up Good Plans

The church at Antioch was going strong when the Holy Spirit broke into their plans. We don't know how the Spirit spoke to them, nor how they were sure it was the Spirit. But one thing is pretty certain; they must have had plans which the Sending Spirit broke up. Barnabas and Saul were what we would call today Associate Pastors of that big city congregation. They had been together there only a year, and that is a short pastorate. Very likely Saul and Barnabas both, along with the church, had plans of one kind and another afoot—good plans, evangelistic, sacrificial. But the Spirit said No. The Spirit had other plans. The church must set aside Barnabas and Saul, cut them off from their growing, successful work in the First Church of Antioch, and send them out as missionaries. They must go to parts unknown, to places not nearly so important as Antioch to the businessmen and danger their lives, far from the peaceful busy streets of Antioch. The Holy Spirit has often come to men in disturbing ways. He often breaks up our best plans. The thing to remember is that God knows better than we do. God's Spirit never breaks up a good plan unless it is for the sake of his better one.

Looking At TV

MAMA, the best-loved and oldest family series on television, has millions of viewers who look upon Mama and her family as real friends. These countless friends of Mama, of all ages, cannot reconcile themselves to the loss of this delightful family from their TV screens. It just wouldn't seem right not to know and share Nel's ambitions to be a doctor, Katrin's romance with T. R.'s father, Dagmar's teen-age turmoils, little Ingeborg's and T. R. Ryan's childish adventures, Aunt Jenny's problems, and Mama's wisdom and gentleness and Papa's strength and calmness.

Mama's friends, by the thousands, frankly disturbed by the news that "Mama" was not to be carried on the CBS-TV network next season, are writing letters to their local stations, to TV Critics and to CBS-TV, 485 Madison Avenue, New York 22, N. Y. earnestly asking that this decision be reconsidered and that "Mama" continue to come into their homes each week.

A couple in Rosedale N. Y., wrote: "May I state that I'll sell my TV set the day "Mama" with Peggy Wood and family leave the air."
From Seattle Washington a mother wrote: "I wish I could adequately express to you our family's gratitude for sponsoring "Mama." The purchase of our TV set would have been justified had we been able to see only "Mama" and nothing else. There just isn't another program which holds us so breathless and absorbed that we can hardly believe that the characters in the play aren't actually the people they portray."

A father in Rhode Island wrote: "I am doing something I should have done a long time ago, i. e., to tell you how very, very much we enjoy "Mama." My wife and eight children (the youngest is 10 years old) feel the same, as I am sure many thousands more do, that this TV program is the most wholesome and entertaining in television; and the only complaint is that it is too short."

Again and again, viewers in their letters of appreciation, refer to "Mama" as the "most wholesome" program on TV, the only evening TV program which they approve for the children's viewing, an "inspirational" program, their "favorite" program, a program which teaches a fine code of morals, a truly American type program, a program filled with common sense and ideal family living. It is evident that the Hansen family is as real to them as the family next door.

If you feel this way, too, why not drop a line to CBS-TV (485 Madison Ave., New York 22, N. Y.) and tell them so.
