

Mary Shangraw Will Instruct

Named Girls' Worker For YMCA Da-Camp

Mrs. Mary Shangraw of West Main Street, Trucksville, has been named the Girls' Worker for the Back Mountain Branch YMCA's Da-Camp, which is set to open for three two-week periods, starting July 2. Mrs. Shangraw has her B. S. Degree in Elementary Education from Juniata College and is at present teaching in Shavertown Grade School. Robert D. Yost, chairman of the Back Mountain "Y" Youth Program, expressed pleasure in securing a person so ideally adapted. Back Mountain Da-Camp is open to boys and girls, 8 to 14 years of age. A well balanced program of games, sports, handicrafts, singing, hikes, tours, swimming, nature study, movies and stories, has been planned. Folders giving full details, can be secured at Shavertown "Y" Building or Central "Y" in Wilkes-Barre.

Gail Woolbert, Chosen Editor Of Year Book

Gail Woolbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Woolbert, North Main Street, Shavertown, has been chosen editor of Susquehanna University's year book, The Lanthorn, for the coming year. Gail, a member of the Junior Class, is an English major, feature editor of the school newspaper, Secretary of the Junior Class, Secretary-Treasurer of the Women's Student Council, and one of six girls appointed by the Dean of Women to be a counsellor in the Freshman girls' dormitory, Hassinger Hall. She was graduated from Westmoreland High School, class of 1954.
