Mrs. Dora Major Passes Away, 83

Burial From Home Saturday At 2 p.m.

Services by the Berean Bible Class will be held tonight at the home of the late Mrs. Dora Major. Funeral services will be conducted from the home tomorrow afternoon at 2 by Rev. Robert D. Yost, followed by burial in Lehman Cemetery. Friends may call tonight.

Pall-bearers will be Chester Barrall, Raymond Searfoss, Elbert Coombs, William Trethaway, and Russell Cesse, members of Jackson Grange 1312, and Marvin Yeust.

Mrs. Major, 83, died Tuesday night at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, where she was apparently making progress after surgery performed a few days earlier. She was admitted as an emergency patient June 20. Until illness struck, she had been in excellent health.

A native of Chase, daughter of the late George and Mary Atherholt Johnson, who were of early pioneer stock in this area, she moved to Hayfield Farm upon marriage to

Melvin Everts Buried At Maple Grove

Melvin Everts, Hunlock Creek, was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Thomas Bouch conducting services from the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mr. Everts, 49, passed away Saturday night after an illness of a year and a half which followed an accident in which he was pinned against a stone wall by a heavy piece of farm machinery. His father, the late James Everts, mail carrier for Hunlock Creek for many years, also died in the prime of life. His mother, the late Elizabeth Hunter-Everts, passed away two years ago.

Mr. Everts was born, raised and spent his life at Hunlock Creek. He was a member of Five Forks United Brethren Church. There is an extensive family connection in the Back Mountain.

George Jenkins Buried At Kocher Cemetery

George Jenkins, lifelong resident of Harveys Lake, was buried in Kocher Cemetery, Ruggles, Tuesday afternoon. Services were conducted by Rev. Henry C. Kraft from the Nulton Funeral Home in Beaumont.

Pallbearers were: John Edwards, Benjamin Rood, Morris Johnson, Wayne Smith, George Guzo, David Deater.

Mr. Jenkins, 74, died at his home Saturday, after a short illness.

Born in Noxen, son of the late Theophilus and Jennie Gebler Jenkins, Mr. Jenkins was a carpenter by trade. He is survived by sisters and brothers: Mrs. Lillie Scott and Mrs. Laura Hasson, Atlantic City; Mrs. William Knight, Cortland, N. Y.; Mrs. Arthur Hoppes, Benjamin and Cornelius Smith, Harveys Lake.

Robert Major. The couple sold to John Conyngham in 1910, but Mr. Major continued to superintend the place until 1917, when the family moved to Lehman.

Mr. Major died in 1936, and a year later Mrs. Major, with her daughter Myrtle, moved to Shavertown.

For almost forty years Mrs. Major was active in Grange affairs, belonging to Jackson Grange 1312, Pomona Grange 44, and State and National Grange organizations. She was a member of the Berean Bible Class, Shavertown Methodist Church.

She has a son, Corey, at Lehman; a daughter Myrtle, at home; seven grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.
