Teen Age All-Stars Lose To Luzerne Play Second Game Tonight At Dallas

Back Mountain Teen-Age League All-Stars lost the first game of a scheduled three game set at Luzerne 9-1. They must win tonight to make the 3rd game necessary.

Six errors proved mighty costly to the Back Mountain pitchers as only three of the nine runs were earned. Olexa with a single and a triple led the Luzerne attack.

Legion Trips Riverside A.C.

Plays Buttonwood Away This Sunday

Dallas Legion Baseball team will travel to Buttonwood on Sunday to take on the Buttonwood Cubs. Dallas will be trying for its tenth win of the season at the Cubs expense and a win here will help tack down the pennant for the Dallas Legionnaires.

Dallas took the measure of the Riverside AC at Edgewater Park in Naticoke on Sunday as Gus Dolchak turned in a neat two hitter for his third win of the season. With fine support behind him, Dolchak was never in trouble and faced only 28 batters. Harry Grose, back in the line up, after missing last week's game came up with two hits as did Johnny Dorish.

Dallas played its usual steady game and jumped on Chet Molley for two runs in the first stanza and then were never headed as they picked up single runs in the third and eighth and four runs in the seventh for a final score of 8-2.

A note on Ken Kraynak, former Dallas right fielder, finds him hitting .396 for the North Platte, Nebraska farm team of the Cleveland Indians. Ken will be back in time for the Wyoming League Playoffs and could be a big help to the Dallas Club.
