Olver Goes To Brooklyn; Payne Heads District

Free Methodists Announce Number Of Pastoral Changes

There were a number of pastoral changes announced during the recent session of the New York Annual Conference of the Free Methodist Church, held at East Dallas camp grounds.

REV. A. LEWIS PAYNE

Elected to fill the expired term of Rev. H. D. Olver, District Superintendent of the Wilkes-Barre and New York Districts was the Rev. A. Lewis Payne, who has been pastor at the Bowman's Creek Church. Rev. Olver, who has been residing at Trucksville, will assume the duties of pastor of First Free Methodist Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Filling the vacancy at Bowman's Creek created by the promotion of Rev. Payne will be Rev. Howard Deats of South Canaan, Pa.

Appointed to shepherd the Dallas and Trucksville churches is a recent graduate of the John Wesley Seminary Foundation, Asbury and Wilmore, Ky., the Rev. Grove Armstrong.

Rev. D. F. Dimmick is transferred from Trucksville to the Meshoppen Free Methodist Church, which during the past year has been supplied by Rev. Lewis Payne, the pastor at Bowman's Creek.

Rev. Marvin Sweezy was returned to Outlet; Rev. Russel Vanderhoof returned to Wilkes-Barre, and Rev.

bers of the family except Walter Steltz Jr. who is serving with the U.S. Army in Germany.

Coral Ide was appointed to the Waverly church.

Climaxing the spiritual emphasis of the conference, General Evangelist Rev. Carl Anderson preached in the morning service on Sunday, and crowds packed the tabernacle afternoon and evening to thrill to the messages of "Jake" DeShazer, former bombardier with the Doolittle Raiders on Tokyo, now a renowned missionary to the Japanese.

Josiah Kocher Dies Aged 85

Son Of Pioneers Buried At Ruggles

Josiah Kocher, 85, grandson of pioneer ancestors at Harveys Lake, and a former resident, died Saturday night in Wilson Memorial Hospital, Johnson City. Funeral services were held from Endicott, the city where he had resided since leaving Harveys Lake forty years ago. The body was taken to Kocher Cemetery, Ruggles, where Rev. Ruth L. Underwood pronounced committal services at the grave. Relatives gathered in the chapel for a brief viewing upon arrival at 12:30 with all but two of the grandchildren in attendance.

Pallbearers were grandsons and husbands of granddaughters: Quentin, Lester and Frederick Kocher, Alfred Aten, Harold Totten and Mario Rossi.

Mr. Kocher's grandfather, Josiah, moved to the Harveys Lake area when Mr. Kocher's own father, Thomas T. Kocher, was only four years old. His mother was Edith Sharp Kocher. The family owned all that territory which is now embraced by the Newell Wood estate.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kirkendall Aten, of Vestal, N. Y.; sons, Clyde R. and George W., of Endicott; a sister, Mrs. Fannie Sutton, Noxen; nine grandchildren, and twenty-four great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. His wife, the late Caroline Green Kocher, died in 1930.

Robert MacMillan, 11, Is Buried At Orcutt

Robert L. MacMillan, eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacMillan, Noxen, was buried Monday afternoon in Orcutt Cemetery, following largely attended services conducted by Rev. Ruth L. Underwood at the Nulton Funeral Home and Noxen Methodist Church. Harveys Lake Cub Scouts attended in a body. Pallbearers were: James Patton, Jr., William Derwin, Jr., and Jack Patton, Robert Condon and Sheldon Traver.

Robert died Thursday night at his home after a year of illness which necessitated a number of hospitalizations. A grade student at Noxen, he belonged to the Noxen Little League, and Harveys Lake Cub Scouts. He attended Noxen Methodist Church and Sunday School.

He is survived by his parents; brothers and sisters; Mrs. Gerald Evelan, Waco, Texas; Phyllis Anne and William, both at home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patton, Noxen, R. D. 1.

Native Of Wales Dies Aged 74

William Llewellyn, 74, Miles Corners, former resident of Plains, was buried in Denison Cemetery Monday afternoon. He died Friday night at his home after several months of failing health.

A native of Wales, he came to the United States in 1923, residing in Plains until 1950, when he moved to the Back Mountain, where he settled in a high place with a wide view, and took up flower gardening. He retired from his employment as timberman at the Henry Colliery eight years ago. He sang in the choir at Orange Methodist Church.

His wife, the former Rose Gregory, is a daughter of a former chief of police of Kingston and Dallas. A registered nurse, she cares for Mrs. Margaret Garrison, who at 85, broke both hips and under good nursing is making a spectacular recovery.

There are several nieces and nephews in Wales.
