Odd Fellows Have Outing

Lehman Men Enjoy Weekend At Cabin

For the fourth consecutive year members of Osage Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Lehman enjoyed a weekend of fellowship and recreation at the Holmes Cabin in Sugar Hollow, Eaton Township. The cabin is located on a slightly hillside above the great bend in the Susquehanna River.

A number of the men went up Saturday evening and spent the night there while others arrived Sunday morning in ample time to enjoy a three-hour pancake and sausage breakfast prepared by Robert Disque and Sheldon Wandell.

During the day there were quills and trapshooting, and at noon a fried chicken and ham dinner. Rev. Kenneth O'Neill arrived after morning services at Lehman Methodist Church.

Those who enjoyed the day were: William Trethaway, F. R. Searfoss, Harry Howell, Robert Disque, Alan Major, A. B. Ide, L. C. Sutton, Edwin Wright, R. E. Wright, H. C. Sutton.

Joe Ellsworth, Wesley Moore, Emmet Hoover, Frank Prutzman, Ray Prutzman, Kenneth Swan, Sheldon Wandell, Lewis V. Ide, Glen Johnson, Walter Harris, Charles Long, Si Evans, Elbert Coombs, Dennis Bonning, Jr., Lester B. Squier, Ben Mitchell, Virgil Sutton, and Rev. Kenneth O'Neill.

It was the twentieth year that Lester Squire has visited the cabin. On previous occasions, the Student Council and faculty groups from Lehman High School have enjoyed the fellowship and slightly beauties of its surroundings.

Back Mt. PTA Council Meets At Library Annex

The first meeting of the Back Mountain P.T.A. Council for this school term was held at Dallas Library Annex last Monday with Mrs. W. F. Bidwell presiding.

After the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. W. A. Austin, treasurer, Edward Dorrance, gave the financial report and presented forms for the payment of state and national dues. Due to the resignation of Mrs. Wright there was no report from the Movie Committee. The group went on record as supporting other civic groups who may take the initiative concerning a community swimming pool. It was voted to subscribe to the "Parents' Magazine" and place the copies in doctors' and dentists' offices for public use. The Dairy Council sent a communication stating that it is desirous to furnish a speaker and films free of charge for P.T.A. meetings. The group was shown the award given to the Dallas Boro Elementary School which received the P.T.A. Standard Association Honor Requirements for 1955-1956. Each attending president of a Back Mountain P.T.A. Chapter presented his plans for the year's projects and programs.

Before adjournment Mrs. Bidwell reminded the group about the voluntary gift for "Founder's Day" and requested attendance at the P.T.A. Workshop at Kingston High School Thursday night, October 25.

The following attended: Beaumont—Orland Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. William Arch Austin; Dallas Borough—Mrs. W. F. Bidwell and Mrs. Ray Titus; Dallas Township—Walter Prokopchak and Edward Dorrance; Lake-Noxen—Mrs. Beulah Branson and Eleanor Humphrey; Shavertown—Mrs. William Glahn, Mrs. George Kromelbein, James Goodwin, James Alexander; Trucksville—Mrs. William Pritchard, Mrs. Welton Farrar, and Stanley Weaver.

Durbin Class Plans Late October Bazaar

The members of the Durbin Class of the Dallas Methodist Church have been making up a variety of aprons for the Bazaar to be held October 26th and 27th. Many are lovely prints and organdies, for adults and children, aprons for parties and utility also many in Christmas designs. Mrs. Arthur Miller, chairman, is assisted by Mesdames Cora Finn, Raymond Kuhnert, Robert VanHorn, Sheldon Mosier and Dan Richards.

The White Elephant Booth at the Bazaar will have an interesting display. Many useful and attractive things will be for sale. In charge of the booth are chairman, Mrs. Gerald Dettmore, assisted by Mesdames Homer Moyer, Sheldon Mosier, John Jeter and Charles James. The committee will be glad to receive donations from friends and members of the W. S. C. S.

Fourth Kindergarten Room In Operation

The fourth kindergarten room, opened September 24 on the second floor of the frame building at Dallas Elementary School, is in charge of Mary Vanden Hout (Polly Lou Cooper), who is once more with the Dallas Area Schools, after resigning in June. There is a registration of 183 in the kindergarten, pupils allocated to the four rooms in eight-session groups, half coming in the morning, half in the afternoon.
