Bina Dendler Becomes Bride Of John Holdredge Saturday

Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, Bina Dendler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dendler, Stull Road, Noxen, became the bride of John C. Holdredge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Holdredge, Zinn Street, Trucksville. Rev. Henry Kraft performed the ceremony in St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Noxen. John Holdredge was organist and Catherine Cooney, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of white nylon tulle over satin applied with chantilly lace. Her fitted bodice was styled with picture neckline and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with white roses and ivy streamers.

Maid of honor was Nancy MacMillan of Binghamton, N. Y., and bridesmaid, Harriet Dendler, sister of the bride. They chose gowns of moss and Nile green net featuring full skirts with white Chantilly lace bodices. Their flowers were yellow carnations and pompons with sprigs of ivy and brown satin streamers. The little flower girl, Linda Phillips, wore deep green knee length dress and carried a basket of yellow carnations and poms. Mrs. Dendler, mother of the bride, selected marine lace dress with matching accessories and corsage of white carnations, and Mrs. Holdredge, mother of the bridegroom, black velvet dress, white accessories and white gardenias.

Judson Holdredge, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Richard Holdredge, Shavertown, and Ernest Holdredge, Trucksville, ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Lutheran Parish Hall and the couple left for a trip through the New England States.

Mrs. Holdredge is a graduate of Noxen High School and General Hospital School of Nursing. Mr. Holdredge was graduated from Westmoreland High School. He is employed as an electronics specialist at the Tobyhanna Signal Corps Depot.
