Woman's Club Class In Ceramics In Full Swing

The ceramics class, one of several projects proposed by the Hobby Committee of Dallas Senior Woman's Club, finished its second session Monday night at Mrs. John Girvan's shop on Lake Street.

Mrs. Girvan reports that five women are working, learning to get the feel of damp clay. Next Monday night Jo Irwin, Jessie Carey, Nancy Elston, Audrey Nelson, and Peggy Malkemes will learn how to build a hollow object with rolled strips. They have already conquered a leaf design and the making of decorative roses.

Lake-Noxen PTA Hears Dr. Vitale

Stresses Importance Of United Front

Dr. Louis J. Vitale, Children's Service Center, Wilkes-Barre, spoke before Lake-Noxen PTA Wednesday evening.

Dr. Vitale's subject was "Making the Grade as Parents." Basic points brought out were:

"We need parents who can assume a share of responsibility; and we need parents who can act together."

"The efficacy of the home depends on the responsibility that the parents assume. That responsibility has to be a shared responsibility."

"Parents have to be in agreement as to the course of action they are going to take whenever an issue comes up."

A Ways and Means Committee, headed by Miss Hazel E. Baer, was appointed to plan fund raising projects for the purchase of a Tape Recorder.

The Association voted to sponsor an Explorer Scout Troop.

Reports on the recent State Convention held at Harrisburg were given by Mrs. Beulah Bronson, president, Mrs. Wilfred Ide, and Mrs. Robert Traver.

Finds Son Home From Germany By Plane

When Mrs. Ruth Houser, Shavertown, returned home from private duty Saturday night, she found her son, just in from Germany, waiting for her. On a twenty-four hour pass, John L. Houser returned to Fort Dix but expects to be home again after honorable discharge this week-end, ready to go with his mother and sister Janice to Christians, to see Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson and celebrate their year-old child Russell's birthday.

John was one of 160 soldiers whose orders to sail by transport were cancelled at the last moment, in favor of plane travel on four large planes, with a saving of over a week.
