Mrs. C. B. Decker Passes Away

Buried Sunday In Vaughn Cemetery

Rev. Arthur B. Mayo, Trucksville Methodist Church, conducted funeral services for Mrs. Christiane Blume Decker on Sunday in her home town of Mehoopany.

Burial followed in Vaughn Cemetery.

Mrs. Decker, 85, died Friday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Henning, Trucksville, with whom she had made her home for the past thirty-six years. Housebound, but in good health until two months ago, Mrs. Decker belonged to Trucksville Methodist Church, having been accepted as a transfer from the Presbyterian Church in Mehoopany. She was an honorary member of its organizations, though unable to attend meetings.

She was born in Sullivan County, daughter of the late John Frederick and Mathilda Ernst Blume and taught school in Mehoopany as a young woman, after being educated in Brooklyn.

Her husband, George, died in 1944.

She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Henning; a brother and two sisters: Carl A. Blume, Mrs. George W. Bannatyne, of Mehoopany, and Mrs. H. W. Brandt, Yonkers; five grandchildren: Stanley P. Henning, Orchard Park, N. Y.; Mrs. George B. Ritchie, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Charles Ague, Lewisburg; Mrs. Frank Reeves, Otego, N. Y.; and Carl Henning, Montgomery; five great-grandchildren: Richard, Robert and Nancy Ague; Patricia Ann Ritchie, and Barbara Ann Reeves.

Dies Shortly After Hospital Admission

Anthony R. Flaherty, 59, Shavertown, died Saturday morning at 1:05, less than two hours after being taken to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital by Kingston Township ambulance. He was buried Tuesday morning in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, following services at the Williams Funeral Home and a requiem mass at St. Theresa's Church.

Mr. Flaherty lived for eight years in Shavertown. He was employed for twelve years at the Boston Store in the men's department, after spending his early years in his native Pittston.

He is survived by his widow, the former Beatrice McGuire, of Luzerne; a brother, Patrick, Hughes town; sisters, Mrs. Margaret Gorman, Fort Lauderdale, and Mrs. James Hughes, Plains Township.

Area Extends Sympathy To Rev. Robert Webster

Rev. Robert Webster, pastor of Dorranceton Methodist Church, widely known in the Back Mountain during his pastorate at Trucksville Methodist Church, lost his father on Monday. Rev. Tracey E. Webster, pastor of Clifford Methodist Church, died at General Hospital after an illness of two weeks.

The funeral was held yesterday from Dorranceton Methodist Church. Rev. Dr. Russell Hawke, superintendent of the Scranton District, was assisted by District Superintendent Harold C. Buckingham. Burial was in Newton Center Cemetery.

Rev. Webster, 74, had served in all four districts of the Wyoming Conference, his pastorate embracing

Mrs. Ralph Fitch Applies Psychology To Collection

Mrs. Ralph Fitch, visiting homes on Huntsville Road between Davenport and Jackson Streets, for the United Fund Drive, has met with outstanding success, according to Mrs. Lewis Reese. Mrs. Fitch combined an earnest approach with common sense. "If you contribute a dollar a month," she explained, "and get a receipt for that amount, you have a water-tight reason for not contributing to any supplementary drive that may be launched in case the drive does not make its quota."

She goes on to explain that the amount can be paid over a period of time, and that twelve dollars distributed over several months isn't a burden, barely noticeable in fact. Not even a quarter a week, if it is easier to collect it in a piggy bank on the installment plan.

Wins Chemistry Prize

William S. Pierce, Harveys Lake, a junior at Lehigh University, has been awarded the William H. Chandler Chemistry Prize as the highest ranking student in the sophomore class in chemistry last year.
