Improved with a 1 1/2 story frame dwelling known as 204 Third Street, Wyoming. Seized and taken into execution at the suit of Louise Anselmi, Assignee vs. William Pace and will be sold by JOSEPH MOCK, Sheriff. PAUL R. ORRSON, Attorney.

Bowling News

Bowling has caught on in the Back Mountain! Since the opening of the new Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes on the Dallas-Harveys Lake Highway hundreds of bowlers have been descending nightly to pit their skill against their other team members.

Every night, except Saturday and Sunday, the lanes are booked by one Back Mountain league or another. Among these are the Dallas Kiwanis, Whitesell Brothers League, Harveys Lake Woman's Club League, Back Mt. Church League, Denmon's Service Station League, and St. Paul's Lutheran League.

In the afternoons several women's leagues take over. They are the Irem Women Golfers' League, Dallas Senior Woman's Club League and College Misericordia Girls' League.

Tops among the lady bowlers to date is Rose Unger, Davis Street, Trucksville, who posted a 209 game this week which still stands as the high at this printing. If not topped by midnight on Saturday, Rose will walk away with the cash prize for best woman bowler of the week. Last week the high individual game for men was bowled by Dale Parsons, Shavertown. This was quite a feat since the high of 222 had held throughout the week and Dale didn't finish his game until ten minutes before the deadline on Saturday night. He posted a string of strikes for a 235 total. High woman bowler last week was Lelia West, Dallas, with 187.

In League bowling the Back Mt. Church League, with sixteen teams going on all the alleys on Wednesday nights, the rivalry is very keen. Recent standings showed Lutheran "A" team, Shavertown "C" team and Trucksville "C" team tied for first spot with records of 9 won and 3 lost. In this league Willard Lozo, Shavertown came up with the individual 3-game high of 585, Philip Van Blarcom, Shavertown, was high for a single game with 233 and the high team was Dallas "A" team with 887.

The Dallas Post will carry this bowling news each week but it is important that league secretaries or presidents send in the information about their leagues or give the information to Bob Hanson or Joe Volley at the lanes. All information concerning bowling activities must be reported by Tuesday evenings at midnight.

Webers To Speak On Switzerland

Book Club To Enjoy Outstanding Program Mr. and Mrs. Felix Weber will show colored slides of their recent trip to Switzerland at the November 21 meeting of the Book Club in the Library Annex. Mrs. Lloyd Kear, president, says that this will be an exceptionally interesting meeting, and hopes to have an overflow attendance in spite of its occurrence the day before Thanksgiving.

Mr. Weber, in visiting his birthplace of Mollis, a small village in the valley surrounded by towering Alps, saw his relatives for the first time in forty-five years. Pictures were taken of snow-clad mountains far above the snow line, with skiers flashing down the slopes in mid-summer, and placid blue lakes reflecting the peaks.

In the main, pictures were concentrated in Switzerland, though a few were taken in London and Paris en route to Switzerland. The Webers flew both ways, leaving Idlewild June 15, returning July 16.

John Churry Heads Dallas Kiwanis

John Churry, Norton Avenue, was named president of Dallas Kiwanis Club at Wednesday night's meeting at Irem Country Club. Other officers elected were: Frank G. Mathers, 3rd, vice president; Frank Karweta, second vice president; Albert T. Glahn, secretary; Francis N. Fry, treasurer. Directors for the coming year are: James Graham, Donald Weeden, Atty. Roscoe Smith, Richard Horton, George J. Kintz, Theodore Ruff and Franklin Gager.

Mother Home From Mercy, Son Remains

Mrs. Paul Rother, Maplewood Avenue, was discharged on Tuesday from Mercy Hospital, where she was registered as a surgical patient. Her five-year-old son, Paul, is still in traction at the same hospital, with probability of remaining four more weeks. One weight was removed from the traction apparatus Wednesday. Paul was injured when dashing across Huntsville Road, he was hit by a car.

Fire Flames From Meter

Vacant Meadowcrest Home Is Saved Quick action on the part of Trucksville Fire Department saved a frame house from burning Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, when flames shot from the meter of the vacant home at 26 Meadowcrest and threatened roof and siding at the back of the house. An employee of the light company was turning on the power, preliminary to occupancy by a new family when sparks shot out.

The fire was subdued without trouble, prevented from reaching the interior, but the meter was completely destroyed. Ralph Garris drove the fire truck.

Lehman WSCS To Hold Bazaar-Turkey Supper Christmas wreaths of pine, hemlock and spruce artistically combined with English walnuts, horsechestnuts, peanuts and artificial fruit to form permanent decorations which can be saved from year to year will be a feature of the WSCS Bazaar next Wednesday in connection with the annual turkey dinner of Lehman Methodist Church. Bazaar opens at 10 and will continue through the evening. Dinner will be served at 5. Tickets may be purchased from members. No reservations necessary.

Carol J. Bogart Becomes Bride Of Paul Rhenholdt Carol June Bogart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Bogart of Terrace Drive, Shavertown, was married to Paul Rhenholdt Swiger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Swiger of Shinnston, W. Va., Saturday at 7 p. m. in Shavertown Methodist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost. Mrs. Mildred K. Kern was organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Bogart of Eden Park, Portsmouth, Ohio, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, attended the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore yellow brocade dress and yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Her attendant was attired in a cocoa brown lace and taffeta dress. Her flowers were rust chrysanthemums.

Following a reception at the home of the bride, the couple went to the Southern States.

The bride is a graduate of Westmoreland High School and attended Wilkes College. She was employed in the credit department of Fowler, Dick and Walker.

Mr. Swiger was graduated from West Fairmount High School, Fairmont, W. Va., and served in the U. S. Air Force four years having spent some time in French Morocco. He was stationed with the 648th Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron at Red Rock, near Benton, for two years.
