Oak Hill

Hi, everybody. We'll begin in a light vein this week by telling an anecdote appropriate to the hunting season. It's about George, our so-called pet rabbit, and we were reminded of his predicament while reading a column in last week's Post.

George was born under our wood pile and was deserted at an early age by his mother. As he grew from a tiny mite to a fairly good-sized rabbit, he and our son became fast friends and played numerous games of tag around the back yard. When the wood pile was moved, George transferred his living quarters to the tomato patch. Then one day something or someone disturbed his home there and he fled to the woods for safety. But in the early evening, on occasion, he appears for another game of tag with Junior.

Two Saturdays ago our Hunter went out to find some small game, but returned empty handed because, upon first entering the woods across from our home, he found two rabbits sitting looking at him. They must have known of his soft heart, for they never moved and he, fearing that one might be George, walked quietly by and left them to their devices.

Now we're saying a silent prayer that either all hunters are as soft-hearted as ours or else George hibernates until next year when he again appears for a game of tag.

With Christmas so close at hand, we'd like to stress a suggestion Howard Risley once made and that is that Oak Hill go all out for the Christmas lighting and enter wholeheartedly into the competition offered by local organizations. While Christmas lighting can be an expense, simplicity can also be outstanding in its own right. With a united effort, we can make Oak Hill really beautiful at Christmas time.

A few days ago we received a call from Mrs. Stuart Marks of Lehman Township who asked if we would state her case in our column.

Mrs. Marks is a representative of the Lehman Township Volunteer Fire Company and she says that they are badly in need of new members to help those faithful ones who now carry the burden. She believes that, since the Oak Hill people are helped by the Fire Company and the ambulance service, it would be to our benefit to attend the meetings and state our views.

The men meet every third Monday and the ladies every fourth Monday. Dues are $1.20 per year, and meetings are held in the very new and modern Fire Company room provided for these meetings and suppers which are also held during the course of the year.

Mrs. Marks also stated that the Fire Company receives no Township support.

Mrs. George Stolarick is Membership Chairman. Mrs. Marks hopes that a large group of Oak Hill people will contact Mrs. Stolarick and begin to attend the meetings and lend their support.

We attended the annual Initiation dinner of the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club last Thursday and were very pleased to note that at least half of the new members were women from Oak Hill.

Harveys Lake Club will welcome any other Oak Hill woman who is interested in joining. We can guarantee a profitable venture for anyone so inclined.

Again, friends, if you have any news, please call it in to Betty De Barry, 96797. It will be appreciated.

Roberts Moves To Philadelphia

Dog Handler Will Open Own Kennels

For the past eight and a half years Kennel manager and handler at Coolyn Hill Kennels, John Roberts, Lehman, has resigned to open his own kennels and to train and show all breeds of dogs at Warrington, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their children, Richard and Patricia, left last Friday for Philadelphia where they will live temporarily at 7401 Twentieth Street, while Mr. Roberts supervises construction of the new kennel.

The Roberts family has many friends here where John was a former president of Lehman Fire Company and a member of the Men's Bible Class of Lehman Methodist Church. He is a member of the Professional Handlers' Association, Bull Terrier Club of America, and Director of Lackawanna Kennel Club.

During his many years with Mr. and Mrs. Z. Platt Bennett's Coolyn Hills Kennel, Mr. Roberts was perhaps proudest of his work with the famous bull terrier Kashdow's White Rock of Coolyn Hills which two weeks ago won his tenth Best of Show at the Bronx Kennel Club Show with Mr. Roberts as handler.
