Albert Morris, Sweet Valley, To Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morris of Sweet Valley will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday, December 22, with a family party in the afternoon.

Mrs. Morris is the former Maude Gregory, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gregory of Muhlenburg and before her marriage taught school in Ross Township. It was there she met her future husband, son of the late William Franklin and Emma White Morris, direct descendants of Robert Morris, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

The couple was married in Wilkes-Barre and went to house keeping in Berwick where Mr. Morris was employed at the A. C. and F. Car Foundry. Two years later they moved to Sweet Valley where they have since been engaged in farming, having been one of the leading growers of fruit and vegetables and especially strawberries for many years.

Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Morris is too well, but Mr. Morris still manages to oversee his strawberry business, and Mrs. Morris, with the help of her daughter, Mrs. Florence Shaw, who lives with them, manages to run her household.

Both are members of the First Christian Church, Sweet Valley.

There are five children: Renold, Glenn and Mrs. Shaw of Sweet Valley; Fred of Pikes Creek and Fleece of Broadway; also seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
