Oak Hill

Season's Greetings, friends! It is with some alarm that we note the nearness of Christmas. This year, as in the immediate past years, we have promised ourselves, "this year no last-minute shopping—everyone's gifts bought in October, Christmas cards ordered and addressed early, house cleaned, gifts wrapped and cookies made, all by at least a week before Christmas." And here we are, still in the same old rut with practically everything to do. But, as usual, we'll have fun doing it, along with a family trip to see the Christmas lighting and various other seasonal projects.

It is gratifying to see the decorations that have already been put up and to note others in the process. It won't be long before Oak Hill is lighted like a Christmas tree, with the developments we have seen taking place to date.

We were privileged last week to hear the Choral Group of Harveys Lake Women's Service Club present its first public concert, and were more than pleased to note the wonderful progress which these women have made since they first organized a few short months ago. They gave a Christmas Cantata which was very splendidly and litling, and also other Christmas selections in which the audience joined. Marie Ritts has done an admirable job and the women, with their cooperation, have formed a singing group which will be a pleasure to listen to at any gathering.

To return to the topic of Christmas, our trip to see Santa Claus was very successful. Our little one, with no sign of fear, scampered into Santa's lap, held up two fingers to denote his age, and went through all the motions of ordering his bowling set. Since he's been a pretty good boy, we're sure Santa will oblige.

Here's hoping we see a lot more Christmas decorations in Oak Hill within the near future.

Young Robert Hirt, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hirt, Sunset Drive, Oak Hill, has been chosen by the Cerebral Palsy Clinic of the Kirby Health Center to represent them on all Easter Seal literature. This does not include the seals themselves. Bobby has had his picture taken with Dr. H. A. Smith of Wilkes-Barre, and his picture will appear on all letters and pamphlets distributed during the Easter Season.

Bobby attends the Cerebral Palsy Clinic which is sponsored by the Wyoming Valley Crippled Children's Association.

Needless to say, Bobby's parents are very proud of the honor bestowed upon their son.

Lehman Residents Urged To Enter Christmas Lighting Contest

by MRS. STUART MARKS

If the past two years are any criterion, the Third Annual Christmas Outdoor Lighting Contest, sponsored by Lehman Fire Company Auxiliary, should make Lehman Township the brightest, cheeriest spot on the map. Each year entries have grown and it is hoped this year, that every home in the Township will be decorated.

New ideas for greater participation were brought forth at a meeting at the home of Joseph Ellsworth, chairman of the contest.

Every resident is urged to decorate and enter the contest. Churches, schools and organizations are also eligible. There will be no classifications and no entry fee. The only requirement being, that entries be located in Lehman Township.

First prize will be $10; second prize, $5; third prize, $3. There will be two second prizes of $5 each, should there be two displays so outstanding that a choice is difficult to make. There is no restriction governing those who wish to enter other contests in the Back Mountain.

Entry blanks are available at Lehman Supply Co.; Moore's Economy Store, Lehman Postoffice, Cave's Store, Idetown, Kemmerer's Garage, Lehman, and Sheldon's Luncheonette, Pike's Creek.

Following a script written by Rebecca Button, music instructor, fourth, fifth, and sixth grade students from Lehman-Jackson-Ross will present a program of Christmas music, songs and poems December 19, 8 p. m., in the auditorium. Against a backdrop of a village green in winter, constructed and painted by Joseph Ellsworth, workshop instructor, children will gather about the community tree of Lehmanshire in Christmas holiday folk festival style.

Miss Button promises some instrumental music, including accordions, in addition to song and story. Cooperating with Miss Button are Lillian Burgess and Edward Strobe, fourth grade teachers; Nellie Steele and Mildred Weidner, fifth grade; Avis Kocher and Bacil Steele, sixth grade.
