Whoever Stole Andrew's Dutch Rabbits May Shortly Be In Dutch

Tommy Andrew of T-Bar-A Rabbitry reports a series of thefts from his rabbitry in Shavertown.

For the past two Saturday nights some one has stolen one of Tommy's prize Dutch rabbits.

It appears that the thief knows his breeds for of the many hundreds of rabbits Tommy raises, the culprit makes off with the particular breed known as Dutch, "the rabbit with the pants." So called because when they are held up they are so colored that they appear to be wearing pants with their bare feet sticking out.

Tommy reports that he has an idea who the thief may be. The last two Saturday nights have been rainy and the thief left his tracks in the soft mud outside the rabbitry.

A Chocolate Dutch and a Lilac Dutch were taken. Each was valued at $10 or more.

Traps have been set and it is believed that the culprit will soon find himself really in Dutch.

Liquor Stores Close Early Dec. 24 and 31

Following a practice inaugurated several years ago, all 626 State liquor stores in Pennsylvania will close at 6:00 P.M. Christmas Eve, Monday, December 24, and on New Year's Eve, Monday, December 31.

Patrick E. Kerwin, Chairman of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, said that 800 extra clerks have been assigned to the stores for the conveniences of the public during the holidays.

"Closing at 6:00 P.M. on the night before Christmas and on the night before New Years Day, is in line with the practice of retail establishments throughout the Commonwealth," Mr. Kerwin said. "Placards will be displayed in all State stores to familiarize the public with the early holiday closing hours."
