Oak Hill News

we'll have fun in any event. This sport is so rapidly becoming one of the nation's favorites that it makes our head spin. Young and old seem to enjoy it and are so enthusiastic about it. Even our young one is getting in training with, not one but two sets. And we can't wait until he's big enough to "beat the ears off us." Which won't be hard to do, although we do see some improvement from time to time.

Oak Hill was certainly a quiet spot on New Year's Eve—outside, that is. There were several open houses being held and other families entertaining friends in smaller numbers, but the noise was all inside.

We are still enjoying our Christmas tree. (Just haven't found the time to remove it). Fortunately for all concerned, it's one that can be planted when removed from the house, although we rather doubt its growing ability.

Hmmmm! Can't you almost smell spring in the air now that the holidays are over? Guess it's just wishful thinking, but it does seem that the days are getting more spring-like. In fact, we're almost positive that spring is close because we can almost see the fishing equipment being brought from its resting place in the cellar and being given an inspection. And we do hear an occasional fishing tale. At least we won't be unprepared when it does come.

Spring, Summer, Winter, Fall—we're glad to be alive to enjoy them all.

at Fort Lauderdale, Florida. We haven't seen them yet, but we're sure they're sporting pretty good tans.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skalicky and Diane spent New Year's weekend in Pittsburgh visiting family and friends.

The Robert Hirt family has returned to their home on Sunset Drive after spending two weeks in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. George Minchin, Laurel Drive, are both confined to their home by illness.

Pvt. Jack Anderson recently spent ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Anderson, Sr. He has returned to Fort Hood, Texas.

CLOTHES DRYING LOOKS EASY!

It IS easy . . . when Reddy does the work! Once the clothes are in the automatic electric dryer, Reddy takes over! You just set the dial and he'll damp-dry your laundry so that it's ready for ironing—or fluff-dry it so that it's ready to put away.

Reddy will do this job any day of the year, too—no matter what the outside weather! And . . . his wages are only a few pennies! Why not let him dry YOUR laundry, too?
