It's Definite! 16 Alleys By July 1st, Hanson Says

Whitesell League Bowler, Keiner Hits Highest Recorded Score, 258

It's no longer a rumor! In an exclusive interview this week Robert Hanson, owner of Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes, stated that the stage is set for the addition of eight more alleys. Construction will start as soon as weather permits.

When these new lanes are completed and the automatic pin-setters are installed, the Crown will be the only bowling center of its kind, this side of Allentown, that will be eligible to bring in the finest tournaments, including those at the national level.

This expansion will make accommodations available for additional leagues and an increase in the number of teams in leagues already formed. A big impetus to the building program is the advent of many new families coming into this area who will be employed by Linear Corporation.

How They Are Doing

Claude Keiner, a smooth performer, hit his peak bowling with Whitesell Bros. League on Tuesday night and chalked up the highest score recorded since Crown opened... a sweet 258... and he started with a split and only 9 pins in the first frame.

Evelyn Roberts, Dallas, hit high ladies' score for this week with a 207.

Last week the out-of-town competition was tough as Howard Renfer of Pittston topped the men with 245 and only Claude Keiner's terrific game this week erased Len Strong of Plymouth who had posted a 243.

Sally Ell, bowling with Dallas Women's League, held the women's honors with a fine 222-game.

League Performances

The Nail Benders continued their winning ways in the Whitesell Bros. Bowling League by taking 3 points from the Hammerheads while the Wood Butchers butchered the Pencil Pushers for 4 points. The standings are now 25-11 for the Nail Benders, 22-14 Wood Butchers, 16-20 Pencil Pushers and 9-27 for the Hammerheads.

Poplars, Old Hickorys, Maples and Oaks are in these positions in the Harveys Lake Women's Club League and Joan Elgaway was high 3-game and individual game winner with 161-440.

Guyette Rolls 215

Buzz Guyette makes news again by being high scorer in the Back Mountain Service Club League with a 215-game. However, Torr Richards beat him out in 3 games for a total of 544 pins.

The Yanks rolled one good game of 858 for team high and gained a bit on the Pirates who stand at the top of the league. Braves and Giants hold third and fourth positions.

Mixed League Reports

Ethel Woolbert's team still leads the Sunday Night Mixed League with the Unger, Pritchard, Hungerford, West and Goddard teams resting in these respective positions. Rose Unger's 472 and Bob Maturi's 509 were high 3-game scores for the night while Tess Pritchard 180, and Warren Unger 198, shared the individual honors.

The Dot Hungerford team had high total pins for 3 games of 1672. Moore Leads Church League

Bob Moore, Dallas, found his spot and led the Church Leaguers with a 233-580 record for high 3-game and single game.

Power began to show as this closely grouped league (only 1 point apart last week) began to spread apart as Dallas "B" moved 3 points ahead of the Mt. Zion team. The standings now are Dallas "B" 37 points, Mt. Zion 34, Dallas "A" 32, tied with Shavertown "C" 32, Trucksville "B" and "C" both have 30 points.

It's Lozo For Firemen

"Chiz" Lozo, one of the Evans Drug Store athletes, pocketed the honors for the firemen with a 198-game.

The Jackson team in this Fire-

Women's Club League are leading with a 16½-4 record in front of the Thunderbirds who have 10½-10, and in third place are the Corvettes with 10-11 and the Falcons have 5 wins against 16 losses.

E. McShea, a newcomer in this column, rolled a nice 163 single and continued on to take high 3-game with 426.

Teen-Agers Improving

Young Eddie Durkin, commenting that "the alleys shouldn't have gutters and the pins should be larger", speaks for many of us as he is learning to bowl with the Elmcrest Teen-Age League. Art Ellum had a 128 game for high score and Raymond Hindrichs was high for 3 games with 340.

As can best be judged from the account turned in, it appears the Speedsters lead this league followed by the Imperials, Parasites and then the Lofters. However, no won-lost record has been turned in.

Two Teams Tie For Totals

The Spectaculars and The Blazers in the St. Paul's Lutheran League had the unique experience of each ending up with the same total of 2310 pins for 3 games.

Mike Gorey of Trucksville was bowling them over Friday night as he hit high single and 3-game totals of 222-569.

In order of their standing in the league the teams are as follows: Breakers, Wonders, Spectaculars, Needlers, Chargers, Blazers, Stunners and Splashers.

Since Income Tax, some people also file their way into prison.
