Beaumont

Mrs. Herbert Goodwin, chairlady of the local "March of Dimes," reports $70.00 has been sent to her showing many people wish to remember those who still must be helped in their battle with Polio. Have you sent your contribution? The local drive ends this week!

The Robert Shaw family of Laceyville and the Lewis Button family of Berwick were with Mrs. Mary Downs and the Herbert Downs family last week-end.

Mrs. Marian Parrish is substituting for Mrs. Edward MacDougall who is taking a sabbatical leave of absence. Last Friday several mothers of the second grade students surprised Mrs. MacDougall with a farewell party.

Mrs. Violet Gary has left the General Hospital to recuperate at the home of her daughter in Kingston.

Mrs. Ralph Lutes entertained several friends at her home Wednesday night.

The Claude Dietz family had the misfortune to be injured in a car accident while in Florida. Mr. Dietz has several broken ribs and knee cap; Mrs. Dietz suffers with a broken pelvis and leg, and the baby has a fractured skull with possible brain injury. They would appreciate receiving cards at 105 N. Peninsular Avenue, New Smyrna Beach, C.B.S., Florida where they are being cared for by friends since their release from the hospital.

Oak Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fudge have welcomed into their home a son, Charles Lewis.

Mrs. Willis Ide has been confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook announce the birth of a five pound, two ounce baby boy, Richard Allan at Nesbitt Hospital on January 23. The couple has three other children. Betty Lou, aged ten, Susan, aged six and Edward, aged four.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frey and Alana, Billy and Mike spent last weekend in Harrisburg visiting family and friends.

Billy Kanasky is recovering from a bout with measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Caby are spending two weeks in Chicago, Ill.

Noxen

At a recent congregational meeting of St. Luke's Church, Elmore Turrell and Roy Dendler were elected to the Church Council. Reports of each society were given and showed a substantial balance in each one.

Weekend guests at the home of the Fred Cooles were their daughter, Arline, James Berger and Kenneth Hale of Buffalo, N. Y.

Judy Engelman, Wilkes-Barre, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Engelman.

Margaret Bellas has accepted employment at the Linear Plant in Fernbrook and will assume her duties on Monday.

Mrs. Andy Thomas has been ill at her home this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Corey Schooley wish to thank their many friends and relatives who sent flowers, cards and gifts to them during Mrs. Schooley's long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leibenguth, Randy and Kathie, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miner, Endicott, N. Y.

Mrs. James Kibbler has returned to the home of Mrs. Charles Allen, Trucksville, after a lengthy stay in the General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schench left to visit their daughter, Mrs. Aldus Myers and Mrs. Warren Hamstine in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Randall visited Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Schenck during the week.

Harding

Hello, again from Harding. Thanks to each one who tries to help me keep Harding in the news. I urge everyone to contact me, if you have any news. Mrs. Hazel Robbins, Harding 2850.

The Harding people gladly welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ames Newhart and family, who moved from West Pittston, to Peter Miller's house on Apple Tree Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Perry Sr. are spending the winter with their daughter and son-in-law in Indian Rock Beach, Florida.

Searl Brown from Apple Tree Road is in the Pittston Hospital, with a broken hip.

The family of the late Mrs. Arch Baird, of Harding, wishes to express their thanks to the neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses showered upon them during their bereavement.

Funeral services for Mrs. Arch Baird were held at the Harold Howell Funeral Home, West Pittston.

Rev. Robert Wood, Rev. Dr. Raymond Ohman, and Rev. Paul D. Wells, officiated. Flower carriers were Ronald Rogers, Jr., Barry Baird, Jack Huffsmith, Harvey Oman, Jr., Dale and Barry Robbins. Pallbearers were Delmar Huffsmith, Robert Baird, Jr., Wesley Lewis, Cornelius Hastie, Russell Firestone, and James Mitchell. Her Sunday School Class of Mt. Zion Church served them a meal after the funeral, at Mt. Zion Methodist Church.

A candle lighting service was held Monday night in the hose house by the Boy Scouts of Troop 313. The affair was planned and presented for the boys who passed to the Tenderfoot Scouts. Each received his tenderfoot pin, with each mother pinning the pin on her son. Mr. Robert Meader gave a very interesting talk and the boys served their parents coffee and cake.

Lehman

Kenny Stolarick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stolarick, Fernbrook, is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stolarick while his young sister, Kathy, is having her tonsils removed.

This week the Mother's March on Polio was held. I want to thank all the women who helped in our local drive. The effort they made to make their collections during the ice storm is really appreciated. I also would like to thank Fred Davenport of the Lehman Police Department who stood guard at the Fire Hall while the collections were returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred May and sons, Rickie and Jon, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Simms.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Britt, Curtis and Carol were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Eddy and family.

The Couples Club of Lehman Methodist Church met recently for a sleigh-riding party. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. David Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wright, Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Niezgodka, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tough. New officers were installed recently. They are Joseph Niezgodka, president; Garwin Tough, vice-president; Mrs. David Eddy, secretary-treasurer.

I received a post card from a woman at Harveys Lake who is also a salt and pepper collector. She told of all the different places that she had received salt and peppers from and how many different types she has collected. How many more of you readers have collections? Let's see how many unusual ones we can uncover. I know Cindy Disque is well started on her salt and peppers and there are several demi-tasse cup collections in town. If you have an unusual collection let's hear about it.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Albert Ide

The Friendship Garden Club of Lehman met recently at the home of its president, Mrs. Albert Ide. A lengthy discussion of the Constitution of the club was held and it will be presented at the next meeting.

A memorial Flower Calendar is being prepared by Mrs. Myron Baker, which will be displayed in the church vestibule with the hope that friends will designate dates on which they will pay floral tribute to their departed loved ones.

A brief discussion was held on the subject of holding a Spring Flower Show; also on the subject of landscaping the high bank along the highway at the back of the church.

Mrs. A. M. Major called attention to several articles concerning two new petunias, "Glitter" and "Red Satin" and a new dwarf star flowered Phlox named "Twinkle" and also a number of new varieties of garden vegetables. She also mentioned briefly an article concerning roses about

Sportsmen Plan March Event

Second Annual Show Will Be Expanded

Second Annual Sportsmen's Show is scheduled for March 25 to 30 at the Farm Show Building in Harrisburg.

Held for the first time last year, it attracted 250,000, a response which resulted in laying plans for a much expanded schedule for this spring. More exhibitors and more merchandise are assured, more activities and more entertainment. Visitors are expected from Canada as well as from every part of the United States.

More than five acres of sporting goods and equipment will be shown, including boats and marine equipment, sport cars, camp trailers, and picnic equipment. Clothing and athletic goods, vacation and travel accessories, as well as outdoor living equipment for the home will be featured.

For further information, write to Executive Office, Pennsylvania Recreation and Sportsmen's Show, 1612 N. Second Street, Harrisburg, Pa.

Transferred From France To Plattsburg Air Base

Fontainebleau, France (Special)—Staff Sergeant Billy A. Wilson of Bloomington, Illinois is being re-assigned to the 380th Air Base Group, Plattsburg Air Force Base, New York.

Sgt. Wilson was assigned here at Headquarters, Allied Air Forces Central Europe, N.A.T.O.'s largest air command, for the past three years working as a press writer in the office of public information.

In Fontainebleau, 38 miles south-east of Paris, he worked in conjunction with airmen from the 7-nations also assigned to AAFCE. They include, the United Kingdom, West Germany, Canada, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, as well as the United States. AIRCENT's mission under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is to protect the air approaches to Central Europe from attack. Its high performance jet aircraft, capable of delivering atomic weapons, stand as a deterrent to aggression.

Sgt. Wilson is the son of Hardin J. Wilson of Bloomington, Illinois.

His wife Patricia and children, Patrick and David who were with him here in Fontainebleau will reside on Overbrook Avenue, Dallas and will join him at Plattsburg at a later date.

which she will go into detail at the next meeting. Mrs. Leonard Adamschick had an interesting display of cones together with instructive books on trees which proved to be a highlight of the evening's meeting.
