

Noxen Lieutenant Receives Silver Bars

(AHTNC)—After being promoted to first lieutenant at Fort Belvoir, Va., James R. Strickland (right) of Noxen, Pa., receives the silver bars signifying his new rank from Maj. Gen. David H. Tulley, commander of The Engineer Center. Lieutenant Strickland, whose wife, Nancy, lives in Noxen, is commander of Company B of the 91st Engineer Battalion. He entered the Army in June 1955. The lieutenant was graduated from the U. S. Military Academy in 1955. His mother, Mrs. Kenneth A. Smith, lives at 540 Linwood Avenue, Buffalo, New York.

Requirements Of Assurance Plan For Obtaining Blood Transfusion

The Red Cross Blood Bank is issuing information about blood credits and blood availability, in advance of the semi-annual visit of the Bloodmobile to Dallas, March 8, from noon until 6 p. m. The amount of blood available for any organized group depends upon the response to the plea for donation.

Personnel of office and canteen, all local this year, will be published next week, according to Mrs. Stefan Hellersperk, coordinator for the Back Mountain.

General operating procedure:

1. Purpose: A cooperative plan is proposed to encourage the active participation of all persons and groups of persons to insure to each person within the Chapter Area that whole blood will be available as needed.

2. Participants: Any organized group of persons or any individual may be eligible for membership in the above blood donor plan. All members of the plan become immediately eligible for all benefits, rights, and privileges of the blood insurance plan.

3. Coverage: A. Eligibility will be limited to members of participating groups or individuals, valid for six months from date of donation of blood.

B. Participating groups shall be responsible for establishing and maintaining eligibility.

C. Any individual or family finding it impossible to participate in an established community group may join a miscellaneous Red Cross Chapter group.

D. Whenever a member terminates his membership with the group he forfeits all rights and privileges. However, if he is a blood donor, he will remain eligible for a period of six months from the time of his last donation, provided he or a member of his family has not already drawn on such credit.

4. Blood Credit: A. Donation receipts shall be issued to the chairman of each participating group up to 70% of actual blood produced. The remaining 30% shall be under the control of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center in cooperation with the Wyoming Valley Chapter.

B. Each donation receipt will be valid for six months from donation at any participating hospital in Wyoming Valley.

C. Eligibility will be established for a group by the donation of a minimum number of ten (10) pints of blood, or 10% membership, whichever is the greater, within a six month period.

5. Mobile Unit Collection: The Wyoming Valley Chapter will be responsible for arrangements with participating groups for their scheduling of their donors at the Center or at mobile unit operations. The regional Center is responsible for the size of operation and date of collections in cooperation with the Chapter as at present.

6. Group Donor Committee: Each participating group shall have a responsible person to issue donation receipts. The responsible individual or committee will issue these only at time of need and upon request of group members.

7. Northeastern Pennsylvania Center Blood Bank Supply: The Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center will attempt to maintain a reasonable supply of blood available for participants. If an adequate supply of a certain type of blood should not be available for the need of a member of above named participating group, it shall be the responsibility of the participating group in cooperation with the Wyoming Valley Chapter to secure a walk-in donor(s). Credit shall be given to participating group for such donation.

8. Blood Delivery: The Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center shall deliver all blood to participating hospitals. When supplying blood to hospitals outside the area all effort shall be made to exchange credit rather than deliver actual blood.

9. Participating Hospitals: The Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center or Wyoming Valley Chapter of the Red Cross shall furnish upon request a list of participating hospitals to any donor group, and work out any problem on acceptance of donation receipts if problems arise with participating hospitals.

10. Non-Participating Hospitals: Insurance cases in non-participating hospitals will be provided with blood on a one for one basis.

General Information: The Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center has the approval of the Wyoming Valley Chapter, and cooperation of the hospitals in Wyoming Valley.

Only those individuals or groups who have established eligibility will receive blood from the local hospitals and Blood Center. Exceptions will be made for life-saving emergencies and for other purposes determined by the Northeastern Pennsylvania Regional Blood Center in cooperation with the Wyoming Valley Chapter.

Eligibility: Any group, that is, union, employee association, fraternal order, professional society, service club, special group, or any individual may establish eligibility by donating blood through the Red Cross. Arrangements for blood donations may be made by contacting the Wyoming Valley Chapter, American Red Cross, 156 South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre. Phone VAL-ley 3-7161.

Distribution and Order Blood by Participating Hospitals: Red Cross blood will be replaced to participating hospitals within the Wyoming Valley area upon the surrender of an equivalent number of donation receipts.

Emergencies: The Regional Center shall have the authority to release blood for life-saving emergencies, without regard to eligibility of recipients. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the Regional Center to determine which cases fall under this classification.

Cubs See Films On Outdoor Kids

Cub Scout Pack 281 Stages Annual Dinner

"Outdoor Kids," a colored film furnished by the Pennsylvania State Game Commission, held Cub Pack 281 spellbound at the annual Blue and Gold dinner held Wednesday night at Dallas Methodist Church. Small boys and their parents watched enthralled while baby foxes peered out of the screen, blue-birds built their nests and hatched their eggs, baby skunks marched across a wooded glade, and the entire rich procession of wild life from early spring to winter passed in review.

Greetings were given by Zel Garinger, representing the sponsoring organization, Rev. Russell Lawry gave the invocation, and William Baker, Jr., Cubmaster, the address of welcome. Faye Hopkins was toastmaster, and Mrs. Howard Wiley, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Antrim, led group singing.

Frank Moyer, Shavertown, from Scout headquarters, gave an award to the Pack for increase in membership, and an individual award to Mr. Baker.

Assistant Cubmaster Arthur Miller presented two-year pins to: Robert Brown, William Ziegenfus, William Sutton, Michael Reed, George Swan, and James Davis; one-year pins to: William Baker 3d, Arthur Miller, and William Sarley.

Cubs were seated by dens, each of the four tables with a cub-made series of three centerpieces, representing religious, patriotic and civic aspects of Boy Scouting.
