Married June 8

LIEUTENANT AND MRS. HILBERT C. LEHMAN

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, was the setting last Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Marlyn Berneice Lundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lundy of Main Street, Dallas, and Second Lt. Hilbert C. Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert M. Lehman of West Grand Avenue, Tower City, Pa. Rev. Frederic H. Eidam officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Dolores Lundy was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Jane Fuller and Sara VanDyke of Washington, D. C., and Carolyn Goeringer of Dallas. Cheryle and Susanne Wise of Oaklyn, N. J., cousins of the groom, were flower girls.

Ensign Herbert Bauer of Brooklyn, N. Y., was best man. Ushers were Captain Harry Dewar and James Lundy, cousins of the groom. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk taffeta. The upper bodice and short sleeves were of re-embroidered imported French lace, the bouffant skirt had a bustle back ending in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Carrying out a pink and white color scheme, attendants wore ballerina gowns of deep pink organza and sequined lace with a matching headband of velvet and net. They carried Colonial bouquets of pink and white roses. Flower girls wore white embroidered organza dresses with pink taffeta sashes, carried pink and white nosegays.

The bride's mother chose a sheath dress of white lace over maize taffeta with matching lace hat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Mother of the groom selected a biege lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Mary Boras, paternal grandmother, wore pink silk dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

After a reception and dinner at Irem Country Club, the couple left on a month's wedding trip to Miami Beach, Florida. On their return they will reside in Dayton, Ohio.

The bride is an alumna of Wilkes-Barre Day School, Wyoming Seminary, and the American University. Since graduation she has been with the United States Board of Examiners, Washington, D. C.

The bridegroom is an alumnus of Porter Township High School, Wyoming Seminary and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Air Force at the graduation exercises Friday at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. He is to continue his studies at Technical Intelligence School in Dayton, Ohio.

Local Women And Girls To Go To Tobacco Camp

Mrs. Dorothy Sisco, Shavertown, will again act as house mother, Joan Swales of Goss Manor as field supervisor and Mrs. Ora Bean of Noxen as camp cook at Camp Hartland, East Hartford, Conn. this summer. The camp which accommodates twenty-eight girls will open July 9 and last for eight weeks.

Mrs. Martin Porter, Shavertown, who has been recruiting young people for this work for the past eleven years, has only four vacancies left.

Local girls who will leave July 8 are Mary Weigel, Betty Grey, Maude Grey, Trucksville; Beverly Kintzer, Shavertown; Miranda S. Thomas, Sandra Lee, Dallas.

Mrs. Charles Dixon Entertains Guild

Mrs. Charles W. Dixon, Tunkhannock Highway, recently entertained women of the guild of Calvary Episcopal Church of Wilkes-Barre. After a delicious chicken dinner, guests enjoyed colored slides of the tulip festival in Holland which were taken by the Dixons' son, Merlyn Jon, now stationed in Fontainebleau, France. Present were Mesdames Margaret Keay, Mary Mosley, Elizabeth Kashmere, Mary Thomas, Anna Steinhauer, Anna Fisher, Sara Rimond, Sadie Schultz, Lillie Norwig, Louise Searfoss, Hazel Miller, Cora Davis, Donald Baldwin, Nora Keller, Margaret Wallace; Rev. Donald Baldwin, Robert Goss and the host and hostess.
