Stredny Loses Two Valuable Heifers

Edward Stredny, West Dallas, is missing two Holstein heifers since last Wednesday, when four young heifers apparently wandered out of his barn sometime during the morning.

Two were discovered that same day just before dark on the railroad track near the Country Club. Neighbors of Mr. Stredny have been on the lookout, but without results.

The heifers, black and white, are three and a half and two and a half months old. They are presumably somewhere between Irem Country Club and Sgarlat Lake.
